19TH YEAR. NO. 261. EAST LIVERPOOL, O., TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 4 1902. TWO CENTS

DANIEL M'CLOUD ARRESTED FOR STRIKING A WOMAN

Admits His Guilt, But Says Dr. Rose Hathway Tried to Run a Horse Over Him.

HIS STORY OF EXCITING FIGHT IN A FIELD

As the result of a hot dispute over the rights connected with a certain piece of property, Dr. Rosemond L. Hathway, of 298 Eighth street, and Daniel McCloud, a tenant on the Ross farm, situated about three miles from the city on the Lisbon road, engaged in a pitched battle last Saturday. That either is left to tell the tale is credited to good luck.

The exciting encounter occurred in an open field, each having ample room to work out all latent pugilistic abilities without the interference of trees, fences or crowds. According to the story of McCloud, each took every advantage of the surrounding conditions. At an early hour this morning Constable Powell visited the Ross farm and served two warrants on McCloud, one for assault and battery and the other for giving vent to profane and indecent language, both being sworn to in 'Squire Rose's court by Dr. Hathway yesterday afternoon.

McCloud was not at all surprised when approached by the constable. He was rather expecting the fracas to terminate in court, having well considered the temperament of his feminine foe. He very willingly stated that he had landed a blow or two on the woman, but he strongly avers that his action was not unprovoked and looks at it from a self-defense standpoint.

"Seeing Dr. Hathway down in a field preparing to plow up a tract which I thought she had no right to touch," said McCloud, "I went down and commenced to argue the point with her. She allowed me to discuss the subject for a few minutes, and all at once she flew into a terrible rage. A horse which she was riding she attempted to drive over me. I had to jump to get out of the animal's way. And when she continued trying to run me down, I thought I had better do something and do it quick if I did not want to be a dead one. I had a stick in my hand and used it on the horse's nose. At this the irate woman dropped to the ground and landed a terrific blow, straight from the shoulder, on my jaw. At me she plunged again, and in defense I struck her also."

It was impossible to get Dr. Hathway's side of the occurrence, but it is to be supposed that she, having had her antagonist arrested, will attempt to prove the opposite from what he stated. The case has been set for a hearing this evening.

On his return trip Constable Powell had a most exciting experience, one that he states he will remember to the end of his days. He was driving a fractious animal and it took fright at some unseen object and started on a terrible run down the road toward the city. Up and down the hill the horse plunged, many times nearly capsiziug the rig. For a full mile the horse continued at its awful gait and when the officer finally got it stopped it had become detached from the buggy and broken several pieces of the harness.

MAYOR'S PATIENCE WAS EXHAUSTED

Nothing Left For Him to Do But Give Jim Penny Workhouse Sentence.

NO HOPE OF REFORMATION

The Executive Informs the Prisoner That He Proposes to Rid the City of Such Characters—Two Others More Lightly Sentenced.

"Why don't you be good?" said Mayor Davidson to Jim Penny this morning, when that well known character was arraigned before home on a charge of vagrancy and drunkenness.

"I have worn my patience out with you," continued the mayor. "You have been before me upon numerous occasions, and I have let you off through sympathy. You have promised me time and again to straighten up and make a man out of yourself, but you fail to carry out the promise every time. I have stood your actions as long as I can, and this time I am going to give you a sentence that I hope will result in your reforming."

"The sentence is that you pay a fine of $50 and costs and that you stand committed in the workhouse until both are paid. I think that will have some effect on you. Now, I want to warn you of one thing. If, when you are released from your six months' incarceration, you return to East Liverpool, I will send you back immediately. This city is tired of your kind, and I most assuredly am doing all within my power to keep it clear of such characters."

Penny did not have a chance to get in a word edgeways and took the medicine in an unconcerned way, only saying that he would give the chief executive another chance as soon as possible.

Two more were also before the mayor. Had it not been for the fact that they work occasionally they would surely have the pleasure of accompaning Penny on his trip tomorrow. They were "Lige" Cain and "Chip" Gamble. On Second street last night they were arrested by Officer Saulsberry but were allowed to go to their homes upon a promise to appear this morning. Cain looked as though he had been against John L. Sullivan, and at first showed a disposition to deny that he had been in a scrap. He was fined $6.60 and having an old fine of the same amount he was placed in the city jail where he will remain until the entire amount is paid. Gamble pleaded guilty and was fined $2 and costs. He made arrangements to settle.

IMPORTANT WITNESS DEAD

An Occurrence Which May Lead to Brewer's Acquittal on Murder Charge.

Columbus, November 4.—(Special.)—John Bender, a bartender, the most important witness in the murder case in which Colonel Albert Brewer, of Tiffin, formerly of Trenton, N. J., is charged with causing the death of Luther Hershey, a dairyman of Tiffin, died at the latter city. He was an eye-witness of the quarrel between the two men which, it is alleged, resulted in Hershey's death.

Colonel Brewer's friends incline to the belief that Bender's death will have the effect of bringing about his acquittal. Another factor in Brewer's favor is that the law under which he was indicted for second degree murder has been declared invalid and it will probable be necessary to return another indictment under the new law. The impression is becoming widespread that Brewer will either be acquitted or be given a mild sentence.

THE VOTE TODAY.

It Will Not Be Heavy in East Liverpool—Figures From the Wards.

BRAVELY DEFIED A BURLY TRAMP

HOUSEWIFE KEPT HIM OUT

Men Came to Her Assistance, Kicked Him Off the Premises And Hustled Him Forward On the Road to Wellsville—His Suspicious Behavior.

Standing in the doorway with no weapon of defense in her hands, Mrs. George Smith, of 458 Jethro street, bravely defied a burly tramp, and by her heroic efforts frustrated the plans of the vicious brute, at an early hour last Saturday evening.

Mrs. Smith's first glimpse of the man was upon her leaving the home on the way to Fisher's grocery store, across the street, where she was going to purchase her usual Saturday night's provisions. Stepping from the front door to the pavement leading to the street she was slightly alarmed at the fellow's effrontery in boldly brushing past her, without uttering a word and continuing on to the rear of the house.

She also perceived that the fellow stopped and gazed suspiciously through the windows, leading her to believe that his intentions were not the best, to say the least. For a moment she was at a loss what to do, but seeing two men of the neighborhood, George Croxall and another standing out in the street, she concluded to ask them to keep watch on the stranger while she went into the house. Although it required the nerve of a strong minded man to carry out her decision she, without a shiver marched into the house and back to the rear door.

There, standing in full view, was the man. He said not a word, but made signs as if appealing for admittance. Mrs. Smith with vehemence told him that there was nothing in the house for him and ordered him to vacate. At the command he became maddened and grasping the screen door jerked it open and attempted to gain an entrance. Like a flash Mrs. Smith took hold of the door proper and slammed it with all her force in his face.

The two men standing watch knew from the sound that something was doing and lost no time in reaching the scene. Together they seized him, one by the coat collar and the other by the arm, and to say that he was hustled off the premises would be expressing it mildly. They not only escorted him with violence, but when they reached the sidewalk each gave him a kick that he will remember for years, and one that sent him many feet on his course, which was headed for Wellsville.

The residents of the West End were much worked up over the affair for an hour or more, and their only regret is that they did not turn the man over to the police instead of letting him depart without more than a pummeling. He was a big rough looking character and would send a chill over the most nervy.

16-YEAR OLD BOY PUT UNDER BOND

PLEA NOT GUILTY ENTERED

Enoch Smith Is Accused of Assaul And Battery And a More Seriou Crime—Released On Bail For a Hearing Next Thursday.

Facing the charge of assault and battery and a more serious crime, Enoch Smith, aged 16, was arraigned before 'Squire McCarron this afternoon. The warrant causing his arrest was sworn against him by Edna Broadbent, a 15-year-old girl, living in California Hollow.

The particulars of the girl's terrifying experience was given exclusively in the News Review last Saturday. She was wending her way homeward from church on Sunday evening, October 26, when a boy whom she then did not recognize, but who told her that he was a brother of a girl named Smith, chased her for several blocks and finally stopped her when near the home of her father. By biting, kicking and threatening to shout for assistance she prevented the youth from injuring her. Since the night of her assault she has studied much over the matter and yesterday decided to have Enoch arrested.

After the accused was arrested and taken to the office of the justice he asked that he might have the privilege of employing a lawyer, and when the request was granted he had considerable trouble in securing one. However, at 1:30 an attorney went to his rescue and advised him to plead not guilty to the charges. On doing this the 'squire released him under a bond of $200 for his appearance next Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

THE FIGHT AT COLUMBUS

Columbus, November 4.—(Special.)—The state house is well nigh deserted today, most of the officials and employes having gone home to vote. Governor Nash and Secretary of State Laylin will receive returns this evening over a special wire which has been put in the secretary's office. A fierce fight is being waged in the Columbus district for congress. Cyrus Huling is the Republican candidate and Judge Badger the Democratic candidate. Badger has been a resident of Columbus for many years and has a large personal following, but is not as shrewd a politician as his opponent.

The Democrats are moving heaven and earth, as it were, to elect their man, and from all indications the contest will be the closest in the state. Huling is a good man, but has some enemies on account of having been in politics a long time. Emmett Tompkins, the present congressman, is a Republican and defeated John J. Lentz, Democrat, two years by less than 25 votes. He did not ask for another term.

Licensed to Marry.

Lisbon, November 4.—(Special.)—Samuel H. Bennett and Alma Pearl Brown, both of Winona, and Ed Mays, Allegheny, and Grace Forney, Leetonia, have been granted marriage licenses.

ELECTION OFFICERS REFUSING TO SERVE IN THE FOURTH WARD

Two Democratic Judges and a Clerk, and One Republican Judge Failed to Appear and Qualify.

When the polls opened at the first precinct of the Fourth ward about two hours after the time specified by law, no Democratic clerk or judges had yet appeared.

Judge James H. Tracy, who has served the Democrats for years at this precinct, had declared several weeks ago that he would not act on this occasion. As for the others, Joseph Reilly as judge and James Nagle, clerk, no explanation was offered. Both of these men have also served as Democratic officers in the past. Nagle is the boy who one year ago caused considerable trouble within the ranks of his party because it was said that he was not at that time 21 years of age.

If there is an irregularity or hitch in the manner of conducting elections in East Liverpool it is indeed a slow day when the first precinct of the Fourth ward has not something novel to offer, and this fall election, it seems, will be no exception to the rule.

W. A. Calhoun, who was appointed on the board at this precinct as a Republican judge, made his appearance at the proper time this morning, but made some inquiry as to the amount which the law prescribed should be paid for the holding of the election, and stated he would not do the work for $2 per day. He remained for a short time, and then departed, leaving only Frank Gallimore, Republican, clerk; Joseph Holtzman, Republican, judge, in charge of the precinct. Frank Fowler, a member of the Republican city central committee, was pressed into service, but even then the parties hesitated to open the election without the presence of any of the Democratic officers. It was fully 8:30 before a ballot was accepted and then only after Ed Cook, chairman of the Democratic city committee, and J. J. Weisend appeared on the scene and advised that the election be preceded with.

In the meantime B. D. Beacom, of Wellsville, member of the board of county supervisors of election, was summoned, and at once went to work upon the case.

Section 2936 of the election laws says: "Any person elected judge of election of clerk, who refuses to qualify as such, or a judge of election or clerk who refuses to discharge the duties imposed by law, or a person chosen to act as judge of election who refuses to act, shall forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding $20, for the use of the county, to be received with costs, in the name of the county, by any justice of the peace of the proper township."

Section 2919 provides for $2 per day for conducting electfons.

Attorney L. T. Farr, of Rogers, a member of the county board of deputy supervisors, was made acquainted with the matter this morning by the president of the board. He was asked this afternoon by telephone as to what action would be taken by the board. "I don't know what the other members think," he said, "but I consider it an inexcusable neglect of duty that should not be passed without some rebuke. Personally I am in favor of pun-

If there is an irregularity or hitch in the manner of conducting elections in East Liverpool it is indeed a slow day when the first precinct of the Fourth ward has not something novel to offer, and this fall election, it seems, will be no exception to the rule.

W. A. Calhoun, who was appointed on the board at this precinct as a Republican judge, made his appearance at the proper time this morning, but made some inquiry as to the amount which the law prescribed should be paid for the holding of the election, and stated he would not do the work for $2 per day. He remained for a short time, and then departed, leaving only Frank Gallimore, Republican, clerk; Joseph Holtzman, Republican, judge, in charge of the precinct. Frank Fowler, a member of the Republican city central committee, was pressed into service, but even then the without the presence of any of the Democratic officers. It was fully 8:30 before a ballot was accepted and then only after Ed Cook, chairman of the Democratic city committee, and J. J. Weisend appeared on the scene and advised that the election be preceded with.

In the meantime B. D. Beacom, of Wellsville, member of the board of county supervisors of election, was summoned, and at once went to work upon the case.

Section 2936 of the election laws says: "Any person elected judge of election of clerk, who refuses to qualify as such, or a judge of election or clerk who refuses to discharge the duties imposed by law, or a person chosen to act as judge of election who refuses to act, shall forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding $20, for the use of the county, to be received with costs, in the name of the county, by any justice of the peace of the proper township."

Section 2949 provides for $2 per day for conducting elections.

Attorney L. T. Farr, of Rogers, a member of the county board of deputy supervisors, was made acquainted with the matter this morning by the president of the board. He was asked this afternoon by telephone as to what action would be taken by the board. "I don't know what the other members think," he said, "but I consider it an inexcusable neglect of duty that should not be passed without some rebuke. Personally I am in favor of pun-

GOLDEN WEDDING A JOYOUS TIME

Happy Reunion of Children and Friends at the Home of Rev. J. N. Swan and Wife.

ALL BUT ONE ARE PRESENT

The golden anniversary of the wedding of Rev. and Mrs. James N. Swan was celebrated today at their home on Ohio avenue, East End. The invited guests, immediately relatives of Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Swan, numbering about 20, arrived last evening and today. During the morning hours there was a general rejoicing over a family once more reunited, the only occasion for regret being the absence of Dr. John M. Swan, who is a medical missionary in Canton, China.

The Swan home was tastefully decorated with chrysanthemums and potted plans, and presented a scene of joy and gladness. The family dinner was one of the happiest features of the occasion. The menu comprised nearly everything good to eat and it afforded Mr. and Mrs. Swan great pleasure to again preside at the table with their loved ones present. The venerable couple were the recipients of many valuable presents, all of which were gold, in keeping with the custom in a celebration of this nature.

From 3 until 5 o'clock this afternoon Rev. and Mrs. Swan were at home to their many friends and during these hours the house was thronged with those who had been members of his congregations and others who had come in contact with their charming personalities. There were congratulations from all, it being a striking demonstration of the high esteem and respect that they command.

WITH THE WORKMEN IN THE CLAY PLANTS

WORKING OVERTIME.

The new shapes and designs in dinner and toilet sets that Burford's are preparing for the spring trade are now out of the hands of the mould-makers and into the clay shops. It is expected to have them ready for the trade by the first of the new year. The decorations for this ware are entirely new and are said to be unusually handsome and tasteful. Manager George E. Buxton, of the decorating room, has been working his force every night and expects to keep it up until Christmas. He has just started to fill an order for a car load of holiday novelties for Oregon dealers. There are 67 members of the decorating department now, by far the largest number in the history of the plant.

MACKEY-MARTINDALE.

Frank Mackey, of this city, and Miss Elizabeth Martindale of Chester, were married last Saturday afternoon at New Cumberland, W. Va. They returned Monday to this city and are at the home of the groom's father, A. J. Mackey, on Florence street, where a reception was tendered them last evening. The groom is a popular young decorator in the Taylor, Smith & Taylor pottery at Chester, and both have a large circle of friends. They will go to housekeeping soon in Chester.

LEADS IN WEDDINGS.

Burford's seems to lead in the matter of recent weddings. In the past six weeks there have been three in which the plant was represented by either a bride or groom. These recent marriages were David Evans to Miss Bertha House, Harry Caton to Miss Lula House and Archie Charlton to Miss Ella Wycoff.

WANTS POLE MOVED.

Joseph Jackson, of the glost kiln crew at Burford's, has complained to the council about a pole recently placed near his house on Sheridan avenue by the street car company. He claims the pole is occupying the space set aside for the sidewalk and wants the council to compel the car company to place it properly.

QUITS THE POTTERIES.

Albert Nubon, a kiln placer at Burford's, is working out his notice and will leave the potteries permanently to accept a situation with the Crockery City Brewing company. His departure will be regretted by his benchmates, and he takes with him the good will of them all.

WATER PIPE BURST.

The bursting of a water pipe yesterday morning in the slip room at Burford's caused a lay-off of all the clay departments until it could be repaired, which was done forthwith. Other than the loss of time there was no damage.

AMONG THE POTTERS.

Miss Mattie Hall, a finisher at Cartwright's, has returned to work after an illness.

George Freymark will accept a situation next Monday with the Pioneer at Wellsville as presser.

George Firth, bench boss, and Barney Graham, of the glost end, at the Sevres, have resigned their positions.

Miss Nora Behout, of the decorating room at Burford's, entertained her friend, Paul Klise, of Caral Dover, Sunday.

David Robinson, of the dipping department at Cartwright's, returned to work yesterday after an illness of several days.

Rose Leonard, a cup jiggerman at Cartwright's, who lives in Madison township, lost a valuable horse recently by death.

Miss Sophia O'Brien, a taker-off in the dipping department at Cartwright's, is confined to her home in Center alley by sickness.

Mrs. Frances Dixon, after a vacation of six weeks, has gone back to her old position as forelady of the biscuit warehouse at the Sevres.

Adam Hawley, who has only recently arrived in this country from Tinworth, England, has taken a job as warehouseman at Cartwright's.

Miss Grace Davis, of the decorating room at Burford's, entertained Miss Gertrude Cooper and Harry Buxton at her home in Wellsville Sunday.

There isn't a busier plant in the district than Cartwright's. They have been rushed for several months and will be at least until after the holidays.

Albert Stein, of the biscuit end at Cartwright's, has finished his apprenticeship and has gone as a journeyman. Jack Mount has succeeded him as apprentice.

James Penny, a turner, and Reuben Litten, a handler at Cartwright's, expect to leave next Monday for Golden, Col., where they will accept situations in a pottery.

James Myers, of the biscuit kiln crew at Cartwright's, has just received a fine beagle hound from a Michigan dog fancier. He was out in the woods yesterday, giving the animal a trial.

HUSBAND WITH ANOTHER

Steubenville Wife Who Was Neglected Broke Up a Happy Little Party.

Steubenville, November 4.—A dramatic incident which occurred in one of Steubenville's leading confectionery stores last evening will not soon be forgotten by the score or more spectators who witnessed it.

The brilliantly lighted ice cream parlors at the rear end of the confectionery store were almost filled with customers when two well dressed couples entered and took seats at the table in the center of the room. They were in such a jovial mood that they attracted the attention of most everyone. One of the men evidently wished to impress upon the public at large that he was the "prince of good fellows," as he insisted on ordering the ices and cake for the party just as they were about to be served a white faced woman, scarcely out of her teens, entered the store. In her arms she carried a very little baby. Glancing nervously around for an instant, her eyes fell on the party under the electric chandelier.

Walking quickly out to the center table she laid her hand on the shoulder of the "prince of good fellows" and as he looked up at her she said "Good evening, Mr. M——." Then she turned and addressed the others in the room and in a calm, clear voice said: "This is my husband, but he doesn't provide me with the necessities of life. Every stitch of clothing I have on now from the skin out is borrowed, but just look at his jewelry. Isn't it fine? He runs about with young girls, but this is his baby. Look at it, can't you tell that it's his child, and yet the poor little darling hasn't a bed to lie in up at her home on the avenue."

Had a pin fallen in the room while she was talking it would have startled everybody so great was the quietness that fell upon the spectators. The "good fellow," his face a bright crimson, uttered never a word. When his wife finished speaking the young lady at his side jumped to her feet. "I didn't know he was married," she said to the little wife. Then turning to him she added "You're a pretty specimen, you ought to be ashamed of yourself. Why don't you go home with your wife and baby?" The "good fellow" sheepishly picked up his hat and slunk out of the door followed by his wife and child. Just then the ices and cake were set down on the table, but his companions had lost their appetites and they too departed, leaving the refreshments untouched.

Mother And Four Children At Steubenville Had a Very Narrow Escape.

Steubenville, Nov. 4.—To be awakened by smoke pouring into the bed room, and with four children by her side, all of whom became terror stricken when the house was discovered on fire at an early hour was the predicament in which Mrs. Otto Schultz was placed shortly before 4 o'clock yesterday morning.

Unlike the children, Mrs. Schultz did not lose self control, and as a consequence she hurried to the second floor of the house to awaken her husband and three children and hurry them from the room, that was close to the flames. In doing so she probably saved them from suffocation, as they were all sound asleep and after being aroused, had hardly left the room until it was filled with smoke. The house, located on Fourth street, was damaged about $1,400.

EAST END

IN THE FIFTH WARD

The Election Promises to Be Very Quiet in the East End District Today.

The election today, so far as the Fifth ward is concerned, promises to be one of the quietest, and with the least interest manifested of any in recent years. Those who voted this morning seemed to be prompted rather by a spirit of duty than by any interest in the result. At 9 o'clock this morning 38 votes had been cast, which is considered only a fair showing. The judges and clerks in charge estimate that about 350 votes will be cast, an increase of about 50 over the vote of last spring. This is only about one-fourth of the estimated increase in the voting population of the ward.

The Republican workers are claiming that they will make the best showing for the ticket of any ward in proportion the number of votes cast.

The following are the judges and the clerks in the Fifth ward today: J. S. Fisher, Republican, presiding judge; M. W. Elliott and N. J. Orr, Democrats, judges; F. K. Ferran, Republican, judge: J. E. Davis, Republican, and Harry Laughlin, Democrat, clerks.

LIGHT IS WANTED

If persistency on the part of some of the most prominent residents of the city, and particularly of the East End, will have any effect on the city council it is a foregone conclusion that Pennsylvania avenue will be dotted with electric lights before many weeks. The pressing need of this improvement is admitted by all. This avenue is the principal connecting link between the city and the East End for equestrians and teamsters, but under the present conditions it cannot be safely utilized after the shades of night have fallen. When a belated team is caught on the road, if the night is dark, the driver is compelled to get out and lead his horses, unless he wants to run the risk of going over an embankment. It is a serious handicap to the merchants and others who do business in the two sections.

"Nobody realizes the necessity of lighting this thoroughfare more than I," said Dr. R. J. Marshall, councilman of the ward, to the News Review man, "and I am heartily in favor of it being done. I believe that council will act promptly when it can see its way clear financially."

Chevalier Fined $4.60.

O. S. Chevalier, who assaulted Expressman J. W. Powell yesterday morning at the East End station, pleaded guilty this morning in 'Squire Carman's court to assault and was fined $1 and costs, amounting to $4.60, which he paid. The suit brought by J. E. Davis, as attorney for Farmer, against W. B. Tompkins for $23.25, alleged to be due for cabbage sold the defendant several months ago, was set for hearing at 2 o'clock Thursday.

Building Seven New Houses.

As stated in the News Review yesterday the erection of seven new houses was commenced this morning. Quite a large force of men are at work staking off the lots and doing other preparatory work. It is expected to have all these new dwellings completed by the first day of the new year, and they will make quite an addition to this section of the East End.

EAST END AFFAIRS.

Miss Janet, the daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth McMillen, is very ill with throat trouble.

James Beardmore went to Beaver Falls this morning to work this week in a cooper shop.

C. E. Foutts, the East End barber, was called to Salineville this morning to attend the funeral of a relative.

Columbus Stewart, who has been employed for some time at the sewer pipe works as a brancher, is moving is family to the East End today from New Cumberland.

Mrs. D. F. White, of Railroad street, whose serious illness with typhoid fever was noted yesterday, is better today. She had a very restless night, but has gained in strength.

MARRIED IN MAY, 1901

Steubenville Wife Now Seeks Divorce, Charging Abuse of Herself And Daughter.

Steubenville, November 4.—Capitola Sanders, of this city, has brought suit to obtain a divorce from David H. Sanders on the ground of extreme cruelty.

They were married on May 11, 1901, and in her petition the plaintiff says that four months after their marriage her husband slapped her face, tore her clothes off her, pulled her hair and ears until the blood flowed from them, and that on June 15, 1902, he struck her on the head with a plate, breaking the plate and knocking her unconscious and cutting a severe wound in her head. She also alleges that on July 1, 1902, he drew a revolver upon her and threatened to kill her by shooting her in the head; that at various times he threatened to kill her and called her all manner of vile and oppobrious names in the hearing and presence of her children and strangers.

Mrs. Sanders also says that her husband would abuse her 14-year-old daughter Laura by slapping her in the face, pulling her hair and beating her with a strap. She alleges that she is the owner of a house and lot on Prospect avenue in the Sixth ward, and she asks in addition to a divorce that her husband be divested of all right of dower in the premises.

ALLIED PRINTING TRADES UNION LABEL COUNCIL E. LIVERPOOL O.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 1902.

The man who wants to stay away from the polls on election day can always find an excuse for doing so. But he can never find a good excuse. He can say it will make no difference to him who is elected. Even if that were the case, is it a part of a patriotic citizen to act wholly for self? But it is not true. The result of an election concerns all the people, and may greatly affect their fortunes for weal or woe. No elector can truthfully say that his influence does not count. At the polls all men are equal, and the ballot of the day laborer counts for precisely as much as that of the millionaire. The people rule in this nation, and if the right sort of men do not fill the office, the people are responsible. Suffrage is a privilege men would fight for, if they saw it was to be denied them. It is the proud boast of Americans that they have the best government on earth. It is one of the inalienable privileges of our people to grumble at the government, though we allow no one else to do so. If every citizen would exercise his right and privilege of voting, and instead of saying he cares not who fills the offices, see that the offices are filled by men of integrity and fearlessness, nine-tenths of all cause for complaint would be removed. Abraham Lincoln, one of the best and wisest Americans that ever lived, had full faith in the plain people. All our most successful statesman have had similar faith, and rarely have any of them had reason to think it was misplaced. The people rule, and rule through the ballot. Negligence of duty on their part is inexcusable.

"The News Review has the highest respect for Thomas J. Duffy as a man, but it has no respect whatever for his politics. He is mistaken when he asserts that this paper has been warring on him. But we have waged, and will continue to wage, unrelenting warfare on the political principles he represents."

Some of Mr. Duffy's friends appear to have taken offense at the above editorial in the News Review of Saturday, giving it a meaning it never was intended to convey. Our hostility to the principles Mr. Duffy represents affects him, not as a Labor representative, but as a representative of the Democratic party. We have constantly fought Democracy, and intend to keep up the battle. We have opposed Mr. Duffy's candidacy, believing that, if elected, he would be compelled to act and work with the Democrats, because in the past he has voted with that party, and because we believe labor's interests are safest in the hands of the Republican party.

Our neighbors in West Virginia will today elect five congressmen instead of four, as in previous years, and the chances are that all will be Republican. West Virginia is certainly a great and progressive state.

There will be no Democratic tidal wave, unless the Democrats want to call the wave that will engulf them theirs.

The farmers of Ohio were never more prosperous. They are not enthusiastic over Tom Johnson's proposition to put all taxes on land. Wait till the rural vote is counted and see.

There will still be time to vote after you have read this paragraph. If you have neglected to go on record in favor of protection and good times, hesitate no longer.

Pennsylvania politics are so complicated this year that whoever wins it will take a week or two to decide which party is entitled to claim victory.

The result is a foregone conclusion. Prosperity is a thing of which the people do not weary.

It will be a Republican congress. Even the Democrats do not expect the impossible.

This is the day when Ohio expects each of her sons to do his duty.

Ohio will vote to keep on letting well enough alone.

The red automobile will never look so pretty again.

Good Republican weather.

Voters, do your duty.

NEW JERSEY CONTEST.

Estimates Made by Men of Both Parties.

Trentton, N. J. Nov. 4.—The campaign in this state has been one of the most spirited in years. The Democratic leaders have predicted the election of five of the eight new senators to be chosen, but the Republicans now assert they will elect six senators and 45 of the 60 members of the house.

Democratic State Chairman Gourley expressed the belief that the Democrats would carry four congressional districts, the first, third, ninth and tenth. The normal Republican majority in the first district is claimed to be 5,000 and the third district gave Governor Murphy a plurality of 2,038. The ninth and tenth districts are embraced in Democratic Hudson county.

Both Confident In New Hampshire.

Concord, N. H., Nov. 4.—The last hours of the political battle found both sides confident. Republicans do not put their plurality for the state ticket at less than 10,000, while the Democrats claim there will be no choice by the people and the election will be thrown in the house of representatives.

FREIGHT TRAINS ON THE CROSSING

Cause West End People to Ask That a New Street Be Opened.

BOND ISSUE IS VOTED FOR

Sum of $30,000 to Be Provided to Enable City to Pay Off Outstanding Debts — Contract Let for Water Street Improvement.

More than eight councilmen attended the regular meeting last evening, the first time for weeks. Nine were present, President Whitacre being the only absentee. Vice President Brennan presided.

A petition was read, signed by West End citizens, asking that council take some action toward having the railroad crossing at Twentieth street opened. The principal reason for the opening of this street is to give the school children who live across the track in the West End a chance to get to school in the morning. Eighteenth street is blocked with freight trains nearly all of the time and the opening of Twentieth street would facilitate matters to some extent. It was moved that City Solicitor Boyd be ordered to take the necessary steps toward opening the street and a unanimous vote was taken.

A petition was read, signed by people who own property abutting on Eve alley, better known as "Jag" alley, asking council to pave the thoroughfare. Favorable action was taken.

A petition signed by the Wellsville Chiny company asked for better fire protection. The company says the present force of the water supply is not sufficient to properly protect its plant in case of fire. It asks council to place a supply tank at the plant for this purpose. The matter was referred to the water works trustees.

Another petition was from the Wellsville China company. It asked council to extend the paving of Ninth street to pass the packing sheds, which would mean the addition of several feet of paving. The company claims that its wagons and drays have to back up to the packing sheds in thick mud and agreed to to pay for one-half of the additional paving. Resolutions were adopted to give the company permission to pave.

A petition signed by many West End citizens was read, asking for the paving of Steubenville street, those signing the petition agreeing to a special assessment of $1.50 per running foot and paying the street a width of 15 feet. Council voted to grant the petition.

Councilmen Weaver and Henderson talked for quite a while on the condition of the Henry Kampman property on Steubenville street. Mr. Weaver said that if council did not take some action towards filling in his lot Kampman would enter suit. No action was taken.

Resolutions were passed to issue bonds in the sum of $30,000 to pay certain outstanding indebtedness of the city. An ordinance to issue the bonds was adopted under a suspension of the rules. The bonds are to be $500 each, the first one to be payable in 1912.

Reports were read and confirmed of equalizing boards of the following streets: Fourth street, Spring Hill avenue, Commerce street, James street, Kelly avenue, Clark avenue, Liverpool street and Lisbon street from First to Fourth. Ordinances providing for the payment were in each instance passed by council.

Councilman Weaver reported that the electric light company has put in a pole at the corner of Tenth and Center streets without permission. The pole committee was empowered to remove it.

An ordinance providing for an addition to the city of a plat of lots belonging to the D. T. Lawson property was passed. A similar action was taken relative to the addition of a plat of lots belonging to the Harmon Michaels property at the foot of Tenth street.

Two bids were received and opened by the city clerk for the building of the retaining wall on Water street from Eighteenth street Twenty-first street. The bidders were John T. Myers and Rinehart Bros. The former's bid was $5.50 per cubic yard for masonry and 40 cents per cubic yard for excavating. The latter's bid was $6 per cubic yard for masonry and 50 cents per cubic yard for excavating. It is estimated by the city civil engineer that 800 cubic yards of excavating will be required to build the wall and 2,100 cubic yards of masonry.

City Engineer Leith reported that, according to the lowest bid received, $5,076 would be his approximate estimate on the cost of the wall. Council awarded the contract to Mr. Myers.

Mayor Fogo asked council to take some action relative to notifying the street railway company to recognize the badges of the Wellsville policemen on its street cars and not compel them to pay fare when in citizen's clothes. A motion to this effect was made by Councilman Brennan and was passed. A motion that the clerk notify Manager Healy to properly fix up the holes which the street railway company has left in the city streets and put better head lights on all cars was passed.

An ordinance was passed that where street improvements are going on the proper red lights should be placed as danger signals.

An ordinance was passed to protect the soldiers' monument hereafter to be erected in the city and also to protect the big cannons on the public square which were tampered with on Halloween night. The ordinance provides a fine not exceeding $100 and the costs of prosecution.

A written report for the month of October from Mayor Fogo showed that $139.15 had been received by him in fines, licenses and rents.

COMMITTEE OF COUNCIL LOOKS AFTER CITY ILLUMINATION.

Electric Lamps to Be Placed in Sections Where They Will Be Appreciated.

The light committee of council made a tour of the city yesterday and located a number of lights which had been ordered, and a few at points where the committee deemed it necessary to have a little more illumination.

The residents of the city, with but few exceptions, are quick to make demands upon the council for improvements in the matter of not only grade lines, fire and police protection, but lights at every street intersection. These little items all cost money, and when the various funds are exhausted none are quicker to protest than the very men who are most eager for the alterations demanded.

For this reason the light committee has been very cautious to the present, and no lights have been authorized other than those which, in the judgment of the committee, were absolutely necessary for the safety and well being of the city. As a result there are many who will be disappointed at the result of the committee's decision.

A light was placed on the hill near the Northside fire station. Another was located at the entrance to Gardendale, where the road leaves the main Calcutta road. A third was placed on Thompson avenue, just below the reservoir.

In the down town district several lights were needed, but they were at points where the smaller ones were thought to be sufficient, and these were the sort selected by the committee. There are a number of alleys in the lower part of town where lights should have been placed long ago. In a majority of cases these lights are at alley intersections, and they were located as follows: In the alley at the rear of the Patterson foundry, between Walnut and College streets; another small light was located at the rear of the M. P. church, while the third was ordered at the intersection of the alleys below the Woodbine laundry.

COMMITTEE OF COUNCIL LOOKS AFTER CITY ILLUMINATION.

Electric Lamps to Be Placed in Sections Where They Will Be Appreciated.

The light committee of council made a tour of the city yesterday and located a number of lights which had been ordered, and a few at points where the committee deemed it necessary to have a little more illumination.

The residents of the city, with but few exceptions, are quick to make demands upon the council for improvements in the matter of not only grade lines, fire and police protection, but lights at every street intersection. These little items all cost money, and when the various funds are exhausted none are quicker to protest than the very men who are most eager for the alterations demanded.

For this reason the light committee has been very cautious to the present, and no lights have been authorized other than those which, in the judgment of the committee, were absolutely necessary for the safety and well being of the city. As a result there are many who will be disappointed at the result of the committee's decision.

A light was placed on the hill near the Northside fire station. Another was located at the entrance to Gardendale, where the road leaves the main Calcutta road. A third was placed on Thompson avenue, just below the reservoir.

In the down town district several lights were needed, but they were at points where the smaller ones were thought to be sufficient, and these were the sort selected by the committee. There are a number of alleys in the lower part of town where lights should have been placed long ago. In a majority of cases these lights are at alley intersections, and they were located as follows: In the alley at the rear of the Patterson foundry, between Walnut and College streets; another small light was located at the rear of the M. P. church, while the third was ordered at the intersection of the alleys below the Woodbine laundry.

BATTLE OF BALLOTS.

Votes Being Cast Throughout Commonwealth of Pennsylvania Today.

CREASY CLAIMS IT BY 40,000

Chairman Quay Declares Pennypacker Will Win by a Majority In the Neighborhood of 165,000. Creasy Claims Legislature.

Philadelphia, Nov. 4.—Voting is proceeding throughout the state today.

Senator Quay prepared a statement giving his estimates of the vote by counties on governor at today's election. The statement was given to the press last night at Republican state headquarters here by Mr. W. F. Wright, the senator's private secretary. Mr. Wright said the figures are conservative and were obtained from representatives of county chairmen. In a number of instances, he said, the estimates of the county chairmen were reduced considerably by the senator.

The statement said in part:

"In 37 counties outside of Allegheny and Philadelphia the estimates received from the respective county chairmen show a net gain of 21,938 votes for Pennypacker over the total vote cast therein for Barnett for state treasurer in 1899.

"In the remaining 28 counties outside of Allegheny and Philadelphia the estimates show a net loss of 12,834 votes compared with the number received by Barnett, making a total net gain for Pennypacker, outside of the counties of Allegheny and Philadelphia, of 9,104 votes.

Compared to Barnett's Pluraility.

"Barnett's majority in the state was 110,488, of which Philadelphia contributed 69,664 and Allegheny 16,493. The other 65 counties gave Barnett a majority of 24,331. Add to this the total net gain just mentioned, 9,104, as estimated for Judge Pennypacker, and our ticket will come to the counties of Philadelphia and Allegheny with a majority of 33,435. These are conservative estimates, and the total Republican majority outside of the counties named may largely exceed the figures given.

"Add to this estimate that of 25,000 majority reported from Allegheny and 105,000 in Philadelphia, and you will see that the total majority in the state for Judge Pennypacker is likely to be in the neighborhood of 165,000 votes.

"As to the congressmen, we will hold our own and are likely to gain several districts. But one district, that the Berks-Lehigh, is conceded to the Democracy.

"The legislature will have two-thirds Republican majority in both branches."

Among Senator Quay's estimates of counties were these:

For Pennypacker—Allegheny, 25,000; Armstrong, 1,250; Beaver, 2,000; Bedford, 300; Blair, 2,800; Bradford, 1,600; Butler, 1,200; Cambria, 500; Clearfield, 500; Fayette, 600; Huntingdon, 1,500; Indiana, 1,800; Mercer, 800; Philadelphia, 105,000; Warren, 1,000; Washington, 3,000; Westmoreland, 1,600.

For Pattison—Clarion, 1,000; Greene, 1,450.

Pennypacker's estimated plurality, 163,435. Barnett's plurality, 110,488. Estimated net gain for Pennypacker over Barnett, 52,947.

Pattison Spoke Last Night.

Philadelphia, Nov. 4.—The campaign having ended, there was little activity yesterday about Republican and Democratic headquarters. Those of the state leaders not residing in this city left here Sunday night and yesterday for their homes to vote. Former Judge Pennypacker, Republican candidate for governor, spent the day at his home in Montgomery county and will remain there until after the election. Robert E. Pattison, his Democratic opponent, was at his office here most of the day and last night addressed a mass meeting of longshoremen in this city.

Insurance Commissioner Durham, leader of the local Republican organization, predicts a convincing victory for the Republican ticket. He said:

"As a result of the reports I have received I predict a Republican majority in Philadelphia of 100,000. The total may be higher. I look for 75,000 majority for Judge Pennypacker outside of Philadelphia. The city will send a solid delegation to both branches of the legislature."

Those of the Democratic leaders still here claim there is no doubt of Pattison's ability to carry the state outside of Philadelphia. Chairman Donnelly, of the city committee, expressed the belief that Pattison's vote in this city will be more than 75,000, which, it is claimed, will insure his election if the Democratic expectations are realized outside of Philadelphia.

Claim Made by Creasy.

The Democratic state headquarters at Harrisburg were closed yesterday by State Chairman Creasy, who left for his home in Columbia county to look after his candidacy for state representative. Chairman Creasy said the Democrats will make large gains all over the state and claimed the Democratic representation in the next legislature will be increased.

United States Senator Penrose will come up for re-election by the legislature to be elected today. It is claimed the Republicans will elect more than the 129 senators and representatives necessary to a choice on joint ballot, and this insures Penrose's election.

Harrisburg, Nov. 4.—Democratic State Chairman William T. Creasy said last night that Pattison would have 40,000 plurality and that the next legislature would be anti-Penrose.

THE FIGHT IN MARYLAND.

Light Vote Expected—Claims of Chairmen.

Baltimore, Nov. 4.—The night before the battle found both parties expressing the strongest confidence in the result. Chairman Goldsborough of the Republican committee, issued a statement last evening predicting that the state will go Republican by from 10,000 to 12,000, and that Maryland will again send a solid Republican delegation to congress.

Chairman Vandiver, of the Democratic committee, in a final statement, professes confidence in the election of four Democratic congressmen, with good chances for a fifth. The vote promises to be light on account of apathy.

Figures InC onnecticut.

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 4.—The Republican state committee was last night confident of a general victory in today's election, though Chairman Gates believes the plurality for the state ticket will be reduced from the 14,000 of two years ago. Mr. Gates also predicted Republican success in all the congressional contests, the hardest fight being in the fourth district, where Congressman Hill is opposed by William D. Bishop, Jr.

Outlook In Kentucky.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 4.—On the the evening before the election the outlook in the congressional races in Kentucky had not changed nor had the interest in the election become greater. It is generally conceded that the Democrats will elect seven congressmen and the Republicans one, while the remaining three districts are in doubt.

DAUGHTERS OF REVOLUTION

Much Interest Taken in Proposition of Forming a Chapter Here.

Much interest is being aroused among prominent ladies of this city by the proposition to organize a chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution here. As it takes but 12 members to form a chapter, it is thought one can be formed here without difficulty. As stated in the News Review the other day, any woman is eligible for membership in the National society of the Daughters of the American Revolution who is of the age of eighteen years and is lineally descended from a patriot, man or woman, who aided in establishing American Independence; provided the applicant is acceptable to the society.

Family alone in regard to the services of an ancestor, unaccompanied by proof, will not be considered.

Every effort is made by the registrar general to verify the applications through the published records. If, however, the ancestor's service can not be proved in Washington, it will be necessary for the applicant to send a certified copy from the pension, state, county or town records. The certificate will be returned to the applicant as soon as the ancestor's service is verified.

Old commissions, certified copies or certified photographs of commissions can verify an ancestor's service; so can old letters or certified copies of old letters proving service. Extracts rare historical works that can not be found in the national library, should always be attested.

Any patriot whose record has been accepted by the Daughters of the American Revolution or by societies of the Sons will be verified at once.

Each applicant is urged to give name of the state, and if possible the county or town from which her ancestor entered the service.

Vermont's record is very meagre. The first two volumes of the "Governor and Council" give some account of Revolutionary service. Some of the "Town Histories" contain rosters. If the service can not be proved write to the "Adjutant General, Montpelier"

AGED FARMER HURT

Nelson McCann, Aged 78, Near Salem, Fell in the Barn and Broke His Hip.

Salem, November 4.—While working in his barn three miles southeast of this city on the Franklin road, Nelson McCann fell and sustained serious injuries. He was up in a haymow and tumbled out, landing on the barn floor. His right hip was broken.

Mr. McCann was discovered some time after the accident and removed to the house. Mr. McCann is one of the best known farmers in this part of the county. Although he is 78 years old, he has always been able to do his own farming. This accident will leave him a cripple, even if he recovers at all.

Mrs. Anderson, a prominent society woman of Jacksonville, Fla., daughter of Recorder of Deeds, West, who witnessed her signature to the following letter, praises Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—There are but few wives and mothers who have not at times endured agonies and such pain as only women know. I wish such women knew the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It is a remarkable medicine, different in action from any I ever knew and thoroughly reliable.

"I have seen cases where women doctored for years without permanent benefit, who were cured in less than three months after taking your Vegetable Compound, while others who were chronic and incurable came out cured, happy, and in perfect health after a thorough treatment with this medicine. I have never used it myself without gaining great benefit. A few doses restores my strength and appetite, and tones up the entire system. Your medicine has been tried and found true, hence I fully endorse it."—MRS. R. A. ANDERSON, 225 Washington St., Jacksonville, Fla.

Mrs. Reed, 2425 E. Cumberland St., Philadelphia, Pa., says:

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I feel it my duty to write and tell you the good I have received from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"I have been a great sufferer with female trouble, trying different doctors and medicines with no benefit. Two years ago I went under an operation, and it left me in a very weak condition. I had stomach trouble, backache, headache, palpitation of the heart, and was very nervous; in fact, I ached all over. I find yours is the only medicine that reaches such troubles, and would cheerfully recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to all suffering women."

When women are troubled with irregular or painful menstruation, weakness, leucorrhœa, displacement or ulceration of the womb, that bearing-down feeling, inflammation of the ovaries, backache, flatulence, general debility, indigestion, and nervous prostration, they should remember there is one tried and true remedy. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once removes such troubles.

The experience and testimony of some of the most noted women of America go to prove, beyond a question, that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will correct all such trouble at once by removing the cause and restoring the organs to a healthy and normal condition. If in doubt, write Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass, as thousands do.

No other medicine in the world has received such widespread and unqualified endorsement. No other medicine has such a record of cures of female troubles. Refuse to buy any substitute.

$5000 FORFEIT if we cannot forthwith produce the original letters and signatures of above testimonials, which will prove their absolute genuineness.

Topeka, Kan., Nov. 4.—Kansas today will elect a full state ticket, including eight congressmen. The Republican and Democratic chairmen both profess confidence in complete success at the polls.

Mrs. William James, who lives at 283 Third street, says: "I was troubled off and on for eight years with a weakness of back and kidneys, a dull, aching pain across my loins up under my shoulder blades and rheumatic pains in my right shoulder. The trouble affected my nervous system, causing a frequent fluttering of the heart and shortness of breath. I generally resorted to porous plasters, but the relief was only temporary. "The legislature will have two-thirds Republican majority in both branches."

Among Senator Quay's estimates of counties were these:

For Pennypacker—Allegheny, 25,000; Armstrong, 1,250; Beaver, 2,000; Bedford, 300; Blair, 2,800; Bradford, 1,600; Butler, 1,200; Cambria, 500; Clearfield, 500; Fayette, 600; Huntingdon, 1,500; Indiana, 1,800; Mercer, 800; Philadelphia, 105,000; Warren, 1,000; Washington, 3,000; Westmoreland, 1,600.

For Pattison—Clarion, 1,000; Greene, 1,450.

Pennypacker's estimated plurality, 163,435. Barnett's plurality, 110,488. Estimated net gain for Pennypacker over Barnett, 52,947.

Pattison Spoke Last Night.

Philadelphia, Nov. 4.—The campaign having ended, there was little activity yesterday about Republican and Democratic headquarters. Those of the state leaders not residing in this city left here Sunday night and yesterday for their homes to vote. Former Judge Pennypacker, Republican candidate for governor, spent the day at his home in Montgomery county and will remain there until after the election. Robert E. Pattison, his Democratic opponent, was at his office here most of the day and last night addressed a mass meeting of longshoremen in this city.

Insurance Commissioner Durham, leader of the local Republican organization, predicts a convincing victory for the Republican ticket. He said:

"As a result of the reports I have received I predict a Republican majority in Philadelphia of 100,000. The total may be higher. I look for 75,000 majority for Judge Pennypacker outside of Philadelphia. The city will send a solid delegation to both branches of the legislature."

Those of the Democratic leaders still here claim there is no doubt of Pattison's ability to carry the state outside of Philadelphia. Chairman Donnelly, of the city committee, expressed the belief that Pattison's vote in this city will be more than 75,000, which, it is claimed, will insure his election if the Democratic expectations are realized outside of Philadelphia.

Claim Made by Creasy.

The Democratic state headquarters at Harrisburg were closed yesterday by State Chairman Creasy, who left for his home in Columbia county to look after his candidacy for state representative. Chairman Creasy said the Democrats will make large gains all over the state and claimed the Democratic representation in the next legislature will be increased.

United States Senator Penrose will come up for reelection by the legislature to be elected today. It is claimed the Republicans will elect more than the 129 senators and representatives necessary to a choice on joint ballot, and this insures Penrose's election.

Harrisburg, Nov. 4.—Democratic State Chairman William T. Creasy said last night that Pattison would have 40,000 plurality and that the next legislature would be anti-Penrose.

THE FIGHT IN MARYLAND.

Light Vote Expected—Claims of Chairmen.

Baltimore, Nov. 4.—The night before the battle found both parties expressing the strongest confidence in the result. Chairman Goldsborough of the Republican committee, issued a statement last evening predicting that the state will go Republican by from 10,000 to 12,000, and that Maryland will again send a solid Republican delegation to congress.

Chairman Vandiver, of the Democratic committee, in a final statement, professes confidence in the election of four Democratic congressmen, with good chances for a fifth. The vote promises to be light on account of apathy.

Figures InC onnecticut.

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 4.—The Republican state committee was last night confident of a general victory in today's election, though Chairman Gates believes the plurality for the state ticket will be reduced from the 14,000 of two years ago. Mr. Gates also predicted Republican success in all the congressional contests, the hardest fight being in the fourth district, where Congressman Hill is opposed by William D. Bishop, Jr.

Outlook In Kentucky.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 4.—On the the evening before the election the outlook in the congressional races in Kentucky had not changed nor had the interest in the election become greater. It is generally conceded that the Democrats will elect seven congressmen and the Republicans one, while the remaining three districts are in doubt.

DAUGHTERS OF REVOLUTION

Much interest is being aroused among prominent ladies of this city by the proposition to organize a chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution here. As it takes but 12 members to form a chapter, it is thought one can be formed here without difficulty. As stated in the News Review the other day, any woman is eligible for membership in the National society of the Daughters of the American Revolution who is of the age of eighteen years and is lineally descended from a patriot, man or woman, who aided in establishing American Independence; provided the applicant is acceptable to the society.

Family alone in regard to the services of an ancestor, unaccompanied by proof, will not be considered.

Every effort is made by the registrar general to verify the applications through the published records. If, however, the ancestor's service can not be proved in Washington, it will be necessary for the applicant to send a certified copy from the pension, state, county or town records. The certificate will be returned to the applicant as soon as the ancestor's service is verified.

Old commissions, certified copies or certified photographs of commissions can verify an ancestor's service; so can old letters or certified copies of old letters proving service. Extracts rare historical works that can not be found in the national library, should always be attested.

Any patriot whose record has been accepted by the Daughters of the American Revolution or by societies of the Sons will be verified at once.

Each applicant is urged to give name of the state, and if possible the county or town from which her ancestor entered the service.

Vermont's record is very meagre. The first two volumes of the "Governor and Council" give some account of Revolutionary service. Some of the "Town Histories" contain rosters. If the service can not be proved write to the "Adjutant General, Montpelier"

AGED FARMER HURT

Nelson McCann, Aged 78, Near Salem, Fell in the Barn and Broke His Hip.

Salem, November 4.—While working in his barn three miles southeast of this city on the Franklin road, Nelson McCann fell and sustained serious injuries. He was up in a haymow and tumbled out, landing on the barn floor. His right hip was broken.

Mr. McCann was discovered some time after the accident and removed to the house. Mr. McCann is one of the best known farmers in this part of the county. Although he is 78 years old, he has always been able to do his own farming. This accident will leave him a cripple, even if he recovers at all.

Mrs. Anderson, a prominent society woman of Jacksonville, Fla., daughter of Recorder of Deeds, West, who witnessed her signature to the following letter, praises Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—There are but few wives and mothers who have not at times endured agonies and such pain as only women know. I wish such women knew the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It is a remarkable medicine, different in action from any I ever knew and thoroughly reliable.

"I have seen cases where women doctored for years without permanent benefit, who were cured in less than three months after taking your Vegetable Compound, while others who were chronic and incurable came out cured, happy, and in perfect health after a thorough treatment with this medicine. I have never used it myself without gaining great benefit. A few doses restores my strength and appetite, and tones up the entire system. Your medicine has been tried and found true, hence I fully endorse it."—MRS. R. A. ANDERSON, 225 Washington St., Jacksonville, Fla.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I feel it my duty to write and tell you the good I have received from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"I have been a great sufferer with female trouble, trying different doctors and medicines with no benefit. Two years ago I went under an operation, and it left me in a very weak condition. I had stomach trouble, backache, headache, palpitation of the heart, and was very nervous; in fact, I ached all over. I find yours is the only medicine that reaches such troubles, and would cheerfully recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to all suffering women."

When women are troubled with irregular or painful menstruation, weakness, leucorrhœa, displacement or ulceration of the womb, that bearing-down feeling, inflammation of the ovaries, backache, flatulence, general debility, indigestion, and nervous prostration, they should remember there is one tried and true remedy. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once removes such troubles.

The experience and testimony of some of the most noted women of America go to prove, beyond a question, that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will correct all such trouble at once by removing the cause and restoring the organs to a healthy and normal condition. If in doubt, write Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass, as thousands do.

No other medicine in the world has received such widespread and unqualified endorsement. No other medicine has such a record of cures of female troubles. Refuse to buy any substitute.

Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

Both Claim Minnesota.

St. Paul, Nov. 4.—General apathy is what the Republicans of Minnesota have to fear most in today's election. The Democrats have conducted the best campaign in years. Republican Chairman Jamison and Democratic Chairman Buck each claims 25,000 plurality for his party.

Kansas Chairmen Profess Confidence.

Topeka, Kan., Nov. 4.—Kansas today will elect a full state ticket, including eight congressmen. The Republican and Democratic chairmen both profess confidence in complete success at the polls.

DOUBTFUL RUMORS

And Still Scores of East Liverpool People Accept Them as Facts.

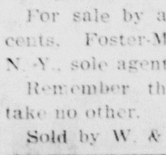

The published statement of some stranger residing in a far-away place may be true enough, but it is generally accepted as a doubtful rumor. How can it be verified? The testimony which follows is convincing proof because it comes from a resident of East Liverpool.

Mrs. William James, who lives at 283 Third street, says: "I was troubled off and on for eight years with a weakness of back and kidneys, a dull, aching pain across my loins up under my shoulder blades and rheumatic pains in my right shoulder. The trouble affected my nervous system, causing a frequent fluttering of the heart and shortness of breath. I generally resorted to porous plasters, but the relief was only temporary. I got Doan's Kidney Pills at the W. & W. pharmacy, obtaining instant relief and finally a cure."

FLED FROM RUSSIA

POLITICAL REFUGEE ASKS AID IN COLUMBUS.

Speaks Five Languages Fluently—Not an Anarchist—Her Husband Disappears.

Columbus, November 4.—The Franklin county infirmary directors had a queer proposition before them yesterday. A woman wanted transportation for herself and her three little boys as far as Cleveland. She and her sons got a "lift along the road" as far as Delaware.

The woman gave her name as Marie Patoff. She said that she was a Russion peasant, but her elegant English proved that she was not a peasant. She spoke the English language almost faultlessly, with but a mere trace of accident, and it was discovered that she could speak German, French, Russian and a Greek dialect as well. She finally confessed that she was a political refugee from Russia, but would not disclose her identity. She let out enough information, however, to prove that she and her husband were political suspects, had been imprisoned in Russia and had made a marvelous escape from that country.

She was very much afraid that she would be returned to Russia. She asked especially about the extradition treaty between the two countries and, when she was convinced that a person could not be extradited from the United States to Russia on a political charge, she let out a bit of her history, producing documents to prove the truth of her story.

Madame Patoff showed all the marks of an accomplished and educated woman, but her hands indicated that she had been at hard labor. When her attention was called to the fact that a Russian peasant could hardly be expected to speak five languages fluently and correctly, she simply laughed and said that many Russians had found it advisable to keep quiet as to their antecedents. She admitted, however, that she and her husband had found it necessary to leave Russia.

The family, according to the woman's story, came to Canada, and there the husband and father disappeared. The wife believes that he was taken away by Russian agents. She came to Columbus with her three boys, aged respectively, 7, 9 and 11 years, and worked in a restaurant.

"I am not an anarchist, and I am not a Greek Catholic. I am a Protestant, and I hope for the freedom of the Russians and all the people of the world."

Physicians are calling attention to the fact that influenza or grip has come to stay. In the larger cities there has been a marked increase in diseases affecting the organs of respiration, which increase is attributed to the prevalence of influenza. Persons who are recovering from grip or influenza are in a weak condition and peculiarly liable to pulmonary disease.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures coughs, bronchitis, lung "trouble" and other diseases of the organs of respiration. It is the best tonic medicine for those whose strength and vitality have been exhausted by an attack of grip.

It purifies the blood, cleansing it of the poisonous accumulations which breed and feed disease. It gives increased activity to the blood-making glands, and so increases the supply of pure blood, rich with the red corpuscles of health.

"A word for your 'Golden Medical Discovery,'" writes Mrs. E. A. Bender, of Keene, Coshocton Co., Ohio. "We have been using it as a family medicine for more than four years. As a cough remedy and blood-purifier there is nothing better, and after having the grip Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is just the right medicine for a complete bracing up."

Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery." There is nothing "just as good" for diseases of the stomach, blood, and lungs.

The sluggish liver is made active by the use of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

LIVING CURIOSITY

GROWN MAN WHO DOES NOT KNOW WHO IS PRESIDENT.

Thought Garfield the Chief Executive. But Recollected Garfield Was Shot.

Columbus, Nov. 4.—A living curiosity in the shape of a man who does not know who is the president of the United States, or how old he is, is locked up at the city prison, and his name is Charles Maynard.

Maynard is either the most ignorant man in town or a shrewd crook, but the police and the acting police surgeon are inclined to the former belief. He has been incarcerated in the city prison since last Monday, when he was brought in by Special Officer Fugitt, of the steel plant, who charged him with assault and battery. The officer claimed that Maynard worked at the plant, and on Saturday night, after having been drinking heavily, while he was leading him out of the yard, Maynard drew a knife and threatened to cut him.

Maynard was tried in police court but sentence will not be passed until after a medical examination of the man has been made. In the court room Maynard expressed considerable ignorance as to the charge against him, and was nervous and trembling all the time. He had never been in jail or in the court room before in his life.

Acting Police Surgeon Hamblin made an examination of the man. He says he was born in West Virginia, but does not know the date. He is a typical southerner, came from the hills and could not tell who is the president of the United States. He finally suggested that Garfield is the chief executive of the nation, but after considerable study he believed that Garfield had been shot. He also said he heard of another president being shot some time ago, but couldn't remember just who it was. Dr. Hamblin expressed the opinion that the man is simply ignorant.

NO FUNERALS ON SUNDAY

New Regulations in the Catholic Church—Laws On Matrimony And Intemperance.

Steubenville, Nov. 4.—There will be no more Sunday funerals in Catholic churches in this city, unless for reasons very good; neither will there be flowers brought into the church at a funeral. These are two of the new rules adopted by the priests of the diocese at the recent synod for the laymen. Not only rules regulating funerals were adopted but everything of interest of laymen and for the betterment of the church and the people were touched upon, so that the Catholics of Columbus diocese are now living under an almost entire set of new rules.

The new laws relating to the laymen were read in Holy Name and St. Peter's churches Sunday, after which they became a law. The most important of these laws are those relating to matrimony, funerals and intemperance. In the first and third, many people indulge, but in the second every body takes a hand.

Hereafter there will be no dispensation from reading the bans, announcing a wedding ceremony, when the two parties are of the same religious belef, except by permission from the bishop and then there must be good reasons. Regarding intemperance the new laws are very strict. They do not prevent Catholics from engaging in the liquor business, but they do require them to live up to the rules of the state, by compelling them to refrain from giving away or selling liquor on Sundays or selling to minors or a man or woman when they are intoxicated, while it admonishes them to prevent women from entering their saloons. Another of the rules, important clauses is to discourage the treating habit, which is considered the foundation of intemperance.

Mrs. W. C. Sanborn, Concord, N. H., says:

"I have used 'Blood Wine' with the best of results. I commenced to gain from the use of the first bottle, and am glad to recommend it to all sufferers."

Few people realize the power of "Blood Wine," the medicine that has cured ninety-seven people out of every hundred. A large bottle fifty cents.

TO DISCUSS NEW CODE

Arrangements in Progress for the Meeting of Ohio Municipal League.

Columbus, November 4.—(Special)—A meeting of the executive committee of the Ohio Municipal league will be held at Dayton November 15 to arrange for the meeting of the league at Hamilton some time in February. The sessions will last three days and will be devoted to a discussion of the new municipal code.

Governor Nash, Special Counsel Smith M. Bennett, of the attorney general's office, and Wade Ellis, of Cincinnati, and other authorities on municipal government, will be invited to open the discussion.

READY TO MEET THEM

West End Rovers Prepared to Play the Oakland Athletic Club for $100 a Side.

Manager Thomas Carpenter, of the West End Rovers foot ball team, stated last evening to a News Review reporter that his team will play the Oakland Athletic club for $100 a side and the gate receipts and denied the assertion that the latter team defeated his at any time last season.

The Rovers have been in constant practice for a month or more, and considering the fact that they played with the best all of last season it is quite likely that they will hold their own against the best that will appear on the local gridiron this fall.

REPUBLICANS CONFIDENT.

But the Democrats Are Hopeful of Winning In Massachusetts.

Boston, Nov. 4.—The last word from the stump in the Massachusetts political campaign was spoken last night by the leading orators of both parties.

Should the Indian summer weather which has prevailed for the past few days continue today it is believed that the total state vote will run well above 300,000. Republicans are exceedingly confident and the Democrats very hopeful. The former claim the state by 25,000, while the latter believe they will elect their candidate for governor by 8,000 plurality.

The present congressional delegation stands 10 Republicans and 2 Democrats, but this year Massachusetts gains a congressman on the redistricting. Under the new apportionment the Republicans assert that 12 of the party candidates will win, while the Democrats claim they will elect at least 9 out of the 14 congressmen.

The uncertain element in today's election is the strength of the Socialistic vote.

SENT TO OPERATORS.

President Mitchell's Statement Likely to be In Their Hands Today.

TO REPLY IN 3 OR 4 DAYS.

This Agreed Before Commission In Washington — Mitchell's Protest Against Sliding Scale Approved by Miners—Arbitrators Visit Mine.

Hazleton, Pa., Nov. 4.—The anthracite strike commission spent the entire day yesterday in the Lehigh Valley region, visiting one mine and several of the mining villages. While most of the commissioners were looking over the territory, Recorder Wright was kept busy on the train in attending to the correspondence of the commission.

Among the matters he disposed of was the sending of a copy of President Mitchell's statement of the miners' case, which was filed with the commission on Sunday night before its departure from Scranton for this region, to all the coal companies involved in the present controversy. The statement was mailed from this city and should be in the hands of the companies today. Under the agreement made before the commission at Washington the operators will make a reply in three or four days.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Nov. 4.—President Mitchell's protest against the sliding scale, as filed with the investigating commission, meets with the approval of all miners. The opinion at strike headquarters is that the re-adoption of the sliding scale would be a step backward, and instead of the miners gaining anything by their strike they would be the losers.

Dynamite was placed under the house occupied by a man named Samuel Dominick, at Pittston, yesterday morning and exploded. The front porch and one window were wrecked. The inmates of the house escaped injury, but were badly scared.

Mull's Grape Tonic Cures Constipation.

When the sewer of a city becomes stopped up, the refuse backs into the streets where it decays and rots, spreading disease-creating germs throughout the entire city. An epidemic of sickness follows. It is the same way when the bowels fail to work. The undigested food backs into the system and there it rots and decays. From this festering mass the blood saps up all the disease germs, and at every heart beat carries them to every tissue, just as the water works of a city forces impure water into every house. The only way to cure a condition like this is to cure the constipation. Pills and the ordinary cathartics will do no good.

"I was a perfectly healthy young man up to February 1865. When my regiment was in Camp Randall I was taken sick with the measles and I did not enjoy good health up to the time I used Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine and Tonic in 1896. Doctors have told me it came from inactivity of the liver. I cannot say how many physicians did treat me but have had all kinds. Dieting has never helped me. Biliousness, attacks of headache, rheumatism, nasal catarh, hay fever, asthma, and chronic diarrhoea; have all taken their turn with me. # FLED FROM RUSSIA

Speaks Five Languages Fluently—Not an Anarchist—Her Husband Disappears.

Columbus, November 4.—The Franklin county infirmary directors had a queer proposition before them yesterday. A woman wanted transportation for herself and her three little boys as far as Cleveland. She and her sons got a "lift along the road" as far as Delaware.

The woman gave her name as Marie Patoff. She said that she was a Russion peasant, but her elegant English proved that she was not a peasant. She spoke the English language almost faultlessly, with but a mere trace of accident, and it was discovered that she could speak German, French, Russian and a Greek dialect as well. She finally confessed that she was a political refugee from Russia, but would not disclose her identity. She let out enough information, however, to prove that she and her husband were political suspects, had been imprisoned in Russia and had made a marvelous escape from that country.

She was very much afraid that she would be returned to Russia. She asked especially about the extradition treaty between the two countries and, when she was convinced that a person could not be extradited from the United States to Russia on a political charge, she let out a bit of her history, producing documents to prove the truth of her story.

Madame Patoff showed all the marks of an accomplished and educated woman, but her hands indicated that she had been at hard labor. When her attention was called to the fact that a Russian peasant could hardly be expected to speak five languages fluently and correctly, she simply laughed and said that many Russians had found it advisable to keep quiet as to their antecedents. She admitted, however, that she and her husband had found it necessary to leave Russia.

The family, according to the woman's story, came to Canada, and there the husband and father disappeared. The wife believes that he was taken away by Russian agents. She came to Columbus with her three boys, aged respectively, 7, 9 and 11 years, and worked in a restaurant.

"I am not an anarchist, and I am not a Greek Catholic. I am a Protestant, and I hope for the freedom of the Russians and all the people of the world."

"I was a perfectly healthy young man up to February 1865. Physicians are calling attention to the fact that influenza or grip has come to stay. In the larger cities there has been a marked increase in diseases affecting the organs of respiration, which increase is attributed to the prevalence of influenza. Persons who are recovering from grip or influenza are in a weak condition and peculiarly liable to pulmonary disease.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures coughs, bronchitis, lung "trouble" and other diseases of the organs of respiration. It is the best tonic medicine for those whose strength and vitality have been exhausted by an attack of grip.

It purifies the blood, cleansing it of the poisonous accumulations which breed and feed disease. It gives increased activity to the blood-making glands, and so increases the supply of pure blood, rich with the red corpuscles of health.

"A word for your 'Golden Medical Discovery,'" writes Mrs. E. A. Bender, of Keene, Coshocton Co., Ohio. "We have been using it as a family medicine for more than four years. As a cough remedy and blood-purifier there is nothing better, and after having the grip Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is just the right medicine for a complete bracing up."

Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery." There is nothing "just as good" for diseases of the stomach, blood, and lungs.

The sluggish liver is made active by the use of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

Thought Garfield the Chief Executive, But Recollected Garfield Was Shot.

Columbus, Nov. 4.—A living curiosity in the shape of a man who does not know who is the president of the United States, or how old he is, is locked up at the city prison, and his name is Charles Maynard.

Maynard is either the most ignorant man in town or a shrewd crook, but the police and the acting police surgeon are inclined to the former belief. He has been incarcerated in the city prison since last Monday, when he was brought in by Special Officer Fugitt, of the steel plant, who charged him with assault and battery. The officer claimed that Maynard worked at the plant, and on Saturday night, after having been drinking heavily, while he was leading him out of the yard, Maynard drew a knife and threatened to cut him.

Maynard was tried in police court but sentence will not be passed until after a medical examination of the man has been made. In the court room Maynard expressed considerable ignorance as to the charge against him, and was nervous and trembling all the time. He had never been in jail or in the court room before in his life.

Acting Police Surgeon Hamblin made an examination of the man. He says he was born in West Virginia, but does not know the date. He is a typical southerner, came from the hills and could not tell who is the president of the United States. He finally suggested that Garfield is the chief executive of the nation, but after considerable study he believed that Garfield had been shot. He also said he heard of another president being shot some time ago, but couldn't remember just who it was. Dr. Hamblin expressed the opinion that the man is simply ignorant.

New Regulations in the Catholic Church—Laws On Matrimony And Intemperance.

Steubenville, Nov. 4.—There will be no more Sunday funerals in Catholic churches in this city, unless for reasons very good; neither will there be flowers brought into the church at a funeral. These are two of the new rules adopted by the priests of the diocese at the recent synod for the laymen. Not only rules regulating funerals were adopted but everything of interest of laymen and for the betterment of the church and the people were touched upon, so that the Catholics of Columbus diocese are now living under an almost entire set of new rules.

The new laws relating to the laymen were read in Holy Name and St. Peter's churches Sunday, after which they became a law. The most important of these laws are those relating to matrimony, funerals and intemperance. In the first and third, many people indulge, but in the second every body takes a hand.

Hereafter there will be no dispensation from reading the bans, announcing a wedding ceremony, when the two parties are of the same religious belef, except by permission from the bishop and then there must be good reasons. Regarding intemperance the new laws are very strict. They do not prevent Catholics from engaging in the liquor business, but they do require them to live up to the rules of the state, by compelling them to refrain from giving away or selling liquor on Sundays or selling to minors or a man or woman when they are intoxicated, while it admonishes them to prevent women from entering their saloons. Another of the rules, important clauses is to discourage the treating habit, which is considered the foundation of intemperance.

Arrangements in Progress for the Meeting of Ohio Municipal League.

Columbus, November 4.—(Special)—A meeting of the executive committee of the Ohio Municipal league will be held at Dayton November 15 to arrange for the meeting of the league at Hamilton some time in February. The sessions will last three days and will be devoted to a discussion of the new municipal code.

Governor Nash, Special Counsel Smith M. Bennett, of the attorney general's office, and Wade Ellis, of Cincinnati, and other authorities on municipal government, will be invited to open the discussion.

West End Rovers Prepared to Play the Oakland Athletic Club for $100 a Side.

Manager Thomas Carpenter, of the West End Rovers foot ball team, stated last evening to a News Review reporter that his team will play the Oakland Athletic club for $100 a side and the gate receipts and denied the assertion that the latter team defeated his at any time last season.

The Rovers have been in constant practice for a month or more, and considering the fact that they played with the best all of last season it is quite likely that they will hold their own against the best that will appear on the local gridiron this fall.

REPUBLICANS CONFIDENT.

But the Democrats Are Hopeful of Winning In Massachusetts.

Boston, Nov. 4.—The last word from the stump in the Massachusetts political campaign was spoken last night by the leading orators of both parties.

Should the Indian summer weather which has prevailed for the past few days continue today it is believed that the total state vote will run well above 300,000. Republicans are exceedingly confident and the Democrats very hopeful. The former claim the state by 25,000, while the latter believe they will elect their candidate for governor by 8,000 plurality.

The present congressional delegation stands 10 Republicans and 2 Democrats, but this year Massachusetts gains a congressman on the redistricting. Under the new apportionment the Republicans assert that 12 of the party candidates will win, while the Democrats claim they will elect at least 9 out of the 14 congressmen.

The uncertain element in today's election is the strength of the Socialistic vote.

SENT TO OPERATORS.

TO REPLY IN 3 OR 4 DAYS.

This Agreed Before Commission In Washington — Mitchell's Protest Against Sliding Scale Approved by Miners—Arbitrators Visit Mine.

Hazleton, Pa., Nov. 4.—The anthracite strike commission spent the entire day yesterday in the Lehigh Valley region, visiting one mine and several of the mining villages. While most of the commissioners were looking over the territory, Recorder Wright was kept busy on the train in attending to the correspondence of the commission.

Among the matters he disposed of was the sending of a copy of President Mitchell's statement of the miners' case, which was filed with the commission on Sunday night before its departure from Scranton for this region, to all the coal companies involved in the present controversy. The statement was mailed from this city and should be in the hands of the companies today. Under the agreement made before the commission at Washington the operators will make a reply in three or four days.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Nov. 4.—President Mitchell's protest against the sliding scale, as filed with the investigating commission, meets with the approval of all miners. The opinion at strike headquarters is that the re-adoption of the sliding scale would be a step backward, and instead of the miners gaining anything by their strike they would be the losers.

Dynamite was placed under the house occupied by a man named Samuel Dominick, at Pittston, yesterday morning and exploded. The front porch and one window were wrecked. The inmates of the house escaped injury, but were badly scared.

Constipation Will Undermine Your Health.

Mull's Grape Tonic Cures Constipation.

When the sewer of a city becomes stopped up, the refuse backs into the streets where it decays and rots, spreading disease-creating germs throughout the entire city. An epidemic of sickness follows. It is the same way when the bowels fail to work. The undigested food backs into the system and there it rots and decays. From this festering mass the blood saps up all the disease germs, and at every heart beat carries them to every tissue, just as the water works of a city forces impure water into every house. The only way to cure a condition like this is to cure the constipation. Pills and the ordinary cathartics will do no good.

MULL'S GRAPE TONIC

is a crushed fruit tonic-laxative

which permanently cures the affliction. The tonic properties contained in the grape go into every afflicted tissue and creates strength and health. It will quickly restore lost flesh and make rich, red blood. As a laxative its action is immediate and positive, gentle and natural. Mull's Grape Tonic is guaranteed or money back.

As he did so a man thrust a revolver in his face and told him to keep still. Two other men then approached and the three gagged him and tied him securely. He was then carried around to the side of the building, where one of the men kept guard over him while the other two blew up the safe. The thieves secured nothing, the funds having been removed the previous evening.

DANIEL M'CLOUD ARRESTED FOR STRIKING A WOMAN

Admits His Guilt, But Says Dr. Rose Hathway Tried to Run a Horse Over Him.

HIS STORY OF EXCITING FIGHT IN A FIELD

As the result of a hot dispute over the rights connected with a certain piece of property, Dr. Rosemond L. Hathway, of 298 Eighth street, and Daniel McCloud, a tenant on the Ross farm, situated about three miles from the city on the Lisbon road, engaged in a pitched battle last Saturday. That either is left to tell the tale is credited to good luck.

The exciting encounter occurred in an open field, each having ample room to work out all latent pugilistic abilities without the interference of trees, fences or crowds. According to the story of McCloud, each took every advantage of the surrounding conditions. At an early hour this morning Constable Powell visited the Ross farm and served two warrants on McCloud, one for assault and battery and the other for giving vent to profane and indecent language, both being sworn to in 'Squire Rose's court by Dr. Hathway yesterday afternoon.

McCloud was not at all surprised when approached by the constable. He was rather expecting the fracas to terminate in court, having well considered the temperament of his feminine foe. He very willingly stated that he had landed a blow or two on the woman, but he strongly avers that his action was not unprovoked and looks at it from a self-defense standpoint.

"Seeing Dr. Hathway down in a field preparing to plow up a tract which I thought she had no right to touch," said McCloud, "I went down and commenced to argue the point with her. She allowed me to discuss the subject for a few minutes, and all at once she flew into a terrible rage. A horse which she was riding she attempted to drive over me. I had to jump to get out of the animal's way. And when she continued trying to run me down, I thought I had better do something and do it quick if I did not want to be a dead one. I had a stick in my hand and used it on the horse's nose. At this the irate woman dropped to the ground and landed a terrific blow, straight from the shoulder, on my jaw. At me she plunged again, and in defense I struck her also."

It was impossible to get Dr. Hathway's side of the occurrence, but it is to be supposed that she, having had her antagonist arrested, will attempt to prove the opposite from what he stated. The case has been set for a hearing this evening.

On his return trip Constable Powell had a most exciting experience, one that he states he will remember to the end of his days. He was driving a fractious animal and it took fright at some unseen object and started on a terrible run down the road toward the city. Up and down the hill the horse plunged, many times nearly capsiziug the rig. For a full mile the horse continued at its awful gait and when the officer finally got it stopped it had become detached from the buggy and broken several pieces of the harness.

THE VOTE TODAY.

It Will Not Be Heavy in East Liverpool—Figures From the Wards.

The vote that is being polled in this city today, while not heavy, is likely to be considerably in excess of that cast at the spring election. The main interest locally centers in the contest for congressman to represent the Eighteenth district.

There are six tickets in the field in this district to be voted for. The Republican and Democratic tickets are, as usual, complete. The others have a few candidates on the Prohibition ticket and on down to one candidate on the Labor ticket. The remaining tickets are the Socialist and Socialist Labor.

At 2:50 p. m., the following number of votes had been cast at the various precincts:

First ward, first precinct, 157.
Second precinct, 117.
Second ward, first precinct, 121.
Second precinct, 191.
Third ward, first precinct, 147.
Second precinct, 153.
Fourth ward, first precinct, 146.
Second precinct, 143.
Fifth ward, 160.
Township, 54.

BRAVELY DEFIED A BURLY TRAMP

Insolent Beggar Tried to Force His Way Into a West End Home.

HOUSEWIFE KEPT HIM OUT

Standing in the doorway with no weapon of defense in her hands, Mrs. George Smith, of 458 Jethro street, bravely defied a burly tramp, and by her heroic efforts frustrated the plans of the vicious brute, at an early hour last Saturday evening.

Mrs. Smith's first glimpse of the man was upon her leaving the home on the way to Fisher's grocery store, across the street, where she was going to purchase her usual Saturday night's provisions. Stepping from the front door to the pavement leading to the street she was slightly alarmed at the fellow's effrontery in boldly brushing past her, without uttering a word and continuing on to the rear of the house.

She also perceived that the fellow stopped and gazed suspiciously through the windows, leading her to believe that his intentions were not the best, to say the least. For a moment she was at a loss what to do, but seeing two men of the neighborhood, George Croxall and another standing out in the street, she concluded to ask them to keep watch on the stranger while she went into the house. Although it required the nerve of a strong minded man to carry out her decision she, without a shiver, marched into the house and back to the rear door.

There, standing in full view, was the man. He said not a word, but made signs as if appealing for admittance. Mrs. Smith with vehemence told him that there was nothing in the house for him and ordered him to vacate. At the command he became maddened and grasping the screen door jerked it open and attempted to gain an entrance. Like a flash Mrs. Smith took hold of the door proper and slammed it with all her force in his face.

The two men standing watch knew from the sound that something was doing and lost no time in reaching the scene. Together they seized him, one by the coat collar and the other by the arm, and to say that he was hustled off the premises would be expressing it mildly. They not only escorted him with violence, but when they reached the sidewalk each gave him a kick that he will remember for years, and one that sent him many feet on his course, which was headed for Wellsville.

The residents of the West End were much worked up over the affair for an hour or more, and their only regret is that they did not turn the man over to the police instead of letting him depart without more than a pummeling. He was a big rough looking character and would send a chill over the most nervy.

Smallpox Abated.

The smallpox scare at Clarkson has abated, but citizens claim there is still great need of vigilance to prevent another outbreak. The destruction of every polluted article is strongly demanded.

16-YEAR OLD BOY PUT UNDER BOND

PLEA NOT GUILTY ENTERED

Enoch Smith Is Accused of Assaul And Battery And a More Seriou Crime—Released On Bail For a Hearing Next Thursday.

Facing the charge of assault and battery and a more serious crime, Enoch Smith, aged 16, was arraigned before 'Squire McCarron this afternoon. The warrant causing his arrest was sworn against him by Edna Broadbent, a 15-year-old girl, living in California Hollow.

The particulars of the girl's terrifying experience was given exclusively in the News Review last Saturday. She was wending her way homeward from church on Sunday evening, October 26, when a boy whom she then did not recognize, but who told her that he was a brother of a girl named Smith, chased her for several blocks, and finally stopped her when near the home of her father. By biting, kicking and threatening to shout for assistance she prevented the youth from injuring her. Since the night of her assault she has studied much over the matter and yesterday decided to have Enoch arrested.

After the accused was arrested and taken to the office of the justice he asked that he might have the privilege of employing a lawyer, and when the request was granted he had considerable trouble in securing one. However, at 1:30 an attorney went to his rescue and advised him to plead not guilty to the charges. On doing this the 'squire released him under a bond of $200 for his appearance next Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

THE FIGHT AT COLUMBUS

A Hot Contest for the Honor of Representing the District in Congress.

Columbus, November 4.—(Special.)—The state house is well nigh deserted today, most of the officials and employes having gone home to vote. Governor Nash and Secretary of State Laylin will receive returns this evening over a special wire which has been put in the secretary's office. A fierce fight is being waged in the Columbus district for congress. Cyrus Huling is the Republican candidate and Judge Badger the Democratic candidate. Badger has been a resident of Columbus for many years and has a large personal following, but is not as shrewd a politician as his opponent.

The Democrats are moving heaven and earth, as it were, to elect their man, and from all indications the contest will be the closest in the state. Huling is a good man, but has some enemies on account of having been in politics a long time. Emmett Tomkins, the present congressman, is a Republican and defeated John J. Lentz, Democrat, two years by less than 25 votes. He did not ask for another term.

Licensed to Marry.

Lisbon, November 4.—(Special.)—Samuel H. Bennett and Alma Pearl Brown, both of Winona, and Ed Mays, Allegheny, and Grace Forney, Leetonia, have been granted marriage licenses.

ELECTION OFFICERS REFUSING TO SERVE IN THE FOURTH WARD

Two Democratic Judges and a Clerk, and One Republican Judge Failed to Appear and Qualify.

When the polls opened at the first parties hesitated to open the election precinct of the Fourth ward about two hours after the time specified by law, o Democratic clerk or judges had yet appeared.

Judge James H. Tracy, who has served the Democrats for years at this precinct, had declared several weeks ago that he would not act on this occasion. As for the others, Joseph Reilly as judge and James Nagle, clerk, no explanation was offered. Both of these men have also served as Democratic officers in the past. Nagle is the boy who one year ago caused considerable trouble within the ranks of his party because it was said that e was not at that time 21 years of age.

If there is an irregularity or hitch in the manner of conducting elections in East Liverpool it is indeed a slow day when the first precinct of the Fourth ward has not something novel to offer, and this fall election, it seems, will be no exception to the rule.

W. A. Calhoun, who was appointed on the board at this precinct as a Republican judge, made his appearance at the proper time this morning, but made some inquiry as to the amount which the law prescribed should be paid for the holding of the election, and stated he would not do the work for $2 per day. He remained for a short time, and then departed, leaving only Frank Gallimore, Republican, clerk; Joseph Holtzman, Republican, judge, in charge of the precinct. Frank Fowler, a member of the Republican city central committee, was pressed into service, but even then the without the presence of any of the Democratic officers. It was fully 8:30 before a ballot was accepted and then only after Ed Cook, chairman of the Democratic city committee, and J. J. Weisend appeared on the scene and advised that the election be preceded with.

In the meantime B. D. Beacom, of Wellsville, member of the board of county supervisors of election, was summoned, and at once went to work upon the case.

Section 2936 of the election laws says: "Any person elected judge of election of clerk, who refuses to qualify as such, or a judge of election or clerk who refuses to discharge the duties imposed by law, or a person chosen to act as judge of election who refuses to act, shall forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding $20 for the use of the county, to be received with costs, in the name of the county, by any justice of the peace of the proper township."

Section 2949 provides for $2 per day for conducting elections.

Attorney L. T. Farr, of Rogers, a member of the county board of deputy supervisors, was made acquainted with the matter this morning by the president of the board. He was asked this afternoon by telephone as to what action would be taken by the board. "I don't know what the other members think," he said, "but I consider it an inexcusable neglect of duty that should not be passed without some rebuke. Personally I am in favor of pun-

NO HOPE OF REFORMATION

The Executive Informs the Prisoner That He Proposes to Rid the City of Such Characters—Two Others More Lightly Sentenced.

"Why don't you be good?" said Mayor Davidson to Jim Penny this morning, when that well known character was arraigned before home on a charge of vagrancy and drunkenness.

"I have worn my patience out with you," continued the mayor. "You have been before me upon numerous occasions, and I have let you off through sympathy. You have promised me time and again to straighten up and make a man out of yourself, but you fail to carry out the promise every time. I have stood your actions as long as I can, and this time I am going to give you a sentence that I hope will result in your reforming."

"The sentence is that you pay a fine of $50 and costs and that you stand committed in the workhouse until both are paid. I think that will have some effect on you. Now, I want to warn you of one thing. If, when you are released from your six months' incarceration, you return to East Liverpool, I will send you back immediately. This city is tired of your kind, and I most assuredly am doing all within my power to keep it clear of such characters."

Penny did not have a chance to get in a word edgeways and took the medicine in an unconcerned way, only saying that he would give the chief executive another chance as soon as possible.

Two more were also before the mayor. Had it not been for the fact that they work occasionally they would surely have the pleasure of accompaning Penny on his trip tomorrow. They were "Lige" Cain and "Chip" Gamble. On Second street last night they were arrested by Officer Saulsberry but were allowed to go to their homes upon a promise to appear this morning. Cain looked as though he had been against John L. Sullivan, and at first showed a disposition to deny that he had been in a scrap. He was fined $6.60 and having an old fine of the same amount he was placed in the city jail where he will remain until the entire amount is paid. Gamble pleaded guilty and was fined $2 and costs. He made arrangements to settle.

IMPORTANT WITNESS DEAD

An Occurrence Which May Lead to Brewer's Acquittal on Murder Charge.

Columbus, November 4.—(Special.)—John Bender, a bartender, the most important witness in the murder case in which Colonel Albert Brewer, of Tiffin, formerly of Trenton, N. J., is charged with causing the death of Luther Hershey, a dairyman of Tiffin, died at the latter city. He was an eye-witness of the quarrel between the two men which, it is alleged, resulted in Hershey's death.

Colonel Brewer's friends incline to the belief that Bender's death will have the effect of bringing about his acquittal. Another factor in Brewer's favor is that the law under which he was indicted for second degree murder has been declared invalid and it will probable be necessary to return another indictment under the new law. The impression is becoming widespread that Brewer will either be acquitted or be given a mild sentence.

GOLDEN WEDDING A JOYOUS TIME

Happy Reunion of Children and Friends at the Home of Rev. J. N. Swan and Wife.

ALL BUT ONE ARE PRESENT

The golden anniversary of the wedding of Rev. and Mrs. James N. Swan was celebrated today at their home on Ohio avenue, East End. The invited guests, immediately relatives of Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Swan, numbering about 20, arrived last evening and today. During the morning hours there was a general rejoicing over a family once more reunited, the only occasion for regret being the absence of Dr. John M. Swan, who is a medical missionary in Canton, China.

The Swan home was tastefully decorated with chrysanthemums and potted plans, and presented a scene of joy and gladness. The family dinner was one of the happiest features of the occasion. The menu comprised nearly everything good to eat and it afforded Mr. and Mrs. Swan great pleasure to again preside at the table with their loved ones present. The venerable couple were the recipients of many valuable presents, all of which were gold, in keeping with the custom in a celebration of this nature.

From 3 until 5 o'clock this afternoon Rev. and Mrs. Swan were at home to their many friends and during these hours the house was thronged with those who had been members of his congregations and others who had come in contact with their charming personalities. There were congratulations from all, it being a striking demonstration of the high esteem and respect that they command.

WITH THE WORKMEN IN THE CLAY PLANTS

WORKING OVERTIME.

The new shapes and designs in dinner and toilet sets that Burford's are preparing for the spring trade are now out of the hands of the mould-makers and into the clay shops. It is expected to have them ready for the trade by the first of the new year. The decorations for this ware are entirely new and are said to be unusually handsome and tasteful. Manager George E. Buxton, of the decorating room, has been working his force every night and expects to keep it up until Christmas. He has just started to fill an order for a car load of holiday novelties for Oregon dealers. There are 67 members of the decorating department now, by far the largest number in the history of the plant.

MACKEY-MARTINDALE.

Frank Mackey, of this city, and Miss Elizabeth Martindale of Chester, were married last Saturday afternoon at New Cumberland, W. Va. They returned Monday to this city and are at the home of the groom's father, A. J. Mackey, on Florence street, where a reception was tendered them last evening. The groom is a popular young decorator in the Taylor, Smith & Taylor potteries at Chester, and both have a large circle of friends. They will go to housekeeping soon in Chester.

LEADS IN WEDDINGS.

Burford's seems to lead in the matter of recent weddings. In the past six weeks there have been three in which the plant was represented by either a bride or groom. These recent marriages were David Evans to Miss Bertha House, Harry Caton to Miss Lula House and Archie Charlton to Miss Ella Wycoff.

WANTS POLE MOVED.

Joseph Jackson, of the glost kiln crew at Burford's, has complained to the council about a pole recently placed near his house on Sheridan avenue by the street car company. He claims the pole is occupying the space set aside for the sidewalk and wants the council to compel the car company to place it properly.

QUITS THE POTTERIES.

Albert Nubon, a kiln placer at Burford's, is working out his notice and will leave the potteries permanently to accept a situation with the Crockery City Brewing company. His departure will be regretted by his benchmates, and he takes with him the good will of them all.

WATER PIPE BURST.

HUSBAND WITH ANOTHER

Steubenville, November 4.—A dramatic incident which occurred in one of Steubenville's leading confectionery stores last evening will not soon be forgotten by the score or more spectators who witnessed it.

The brilliantly lighted ice cream parlors at the rear end of the confectionery store were almost filled with customers when two well dressed couples entered and took seats at the table in the center of the room. They were in such a jovial mood that they attracted the attention of most everyone. One of the men evidently wished to impress upon the public at large that he was the "prince of good fellows," as he insisted on ordering the ices and cake for the party just as they were about to be served a white faced woman, scarcely out of her teens, entered the store. In her arms she carried a very little baby. Glancing nervously around for an instant, her eyes fell on the party under the electric chandelier.

Walking quickly out to the center table she laid her hand on the shoulder of the "prince of good fellows" and as he looked up at her she said "Good evening, Mr. M——." Then she turned and addressed the others in the room and in a calm, clear voice said: "This is my husband, but he doesn't provide me with the necessities of life. Every stitch of clothing I have on now from the skin out is borrowed, but just look at his jewelry. Isn't it fine? He runs about with young girls, but this is his baby. Look at it, can't you tell that it's his child, and yet the poor little darling hasn't a bed to lie in up at her home on the avenue."

Had a pin fallen in the room while she was talking it would have startled everybody so great was the quietness that fell upon the spectators. The "good fellow," his face a bright crimson, uttered never a word. When his wife finished speaking the young lady at his side jumped to her feet. "I didn't know he was married," she said to the little wife. Then turning to him she added "You're a pretty specimen, you ought to be ashamed of yourself. Why don't you go home with your wife and baby?" The "good fellow" sheepishly picked up his hat and slunk out of the door followed by his wife and child. Just then the ices and cake were set down on the table, but his companions had lost their appetites and they too departed, leaving the refreshments untouched.

AWAKENED BY SMOKE

Mother And Four Children At Steubenville Had a Very Narrow Escape.

Steubenville, Nov. 4.—To be awakened by smoke pouring into the bed room, and with four children by her side, all of whom became terror stricken when the house was discovered on fire at an early hour was the predicament in which Mrs. Otto Schultz was placed shortly before 4 o'clock yesterday morning.

Unlike the children, Mrs. Schultz did not lose self control, and as a consequence she hurried to the second floor of the house to awaken her husband and three children and hurry them from the room, that was close to the flames. In doing so she probably saved them from suffocation, as they were all sound asleep and after being aroused, had hardly left the room until it was filled with smoke. The house, located on Fourth street, was damaged about $1,400.

IN THE FIFTH WARD

The Election Promises to Be Very Quiet in the East End District Today.

The election today, so far as the Fifth ward is concerned, promises to be one of the quietest, and with the least interest manifested of any in recent years. Those who voted this morning seemed to be prompted rather by a spirit of duty than by any interest in the result. At 9 o'clock this morning 38 votes had been cast, which is considered only a fair showing. The judges and clerks in charge estimate that about 350 votes will be cast, an increase of about 50 over the vote of last spring. This is only about one-fourth of the estimated increase in the voting population of the ward.

The Republican workers are claiming that they will make the best showing for the ticket of any ward in proportion the number of votes cast.

The following are the judges and the clerks in the Fifth ward today: J. S. Fisher, Republican, presiding judge; M. W. Elliott and N. J. Orr, Democrats, judges; F. K. Ferran, Republican, judge: J. E. Davis, Republican, and Harry Laughlin, Democrat, clerks.

LIGHT IS WANTED

If persistency on the part of some of the most prominent residents of the city, and particularly of the East End, will have any effect on the city council it is a foregone conclusion that Pennsylvania avenue will be dotted with electric lights before many weeks. The pressing need of this improvement is admitted by all. This avenue is the principal connecting link between the city and the East End for equestrians and teamsters, but under the present conditions it cannot be safely utilized after the shades of night have fallen. When a belated team is caught on the road, if the night is dark, the driver is compelled to get out and lead his horses, unless he wants to run the risk of going over an embankment. It is a serious handicap to the merchants and others who do business in the two sections.

"Nobody realizes the necessity of lighting this thoroughfare more than I," said Dr. R. J. Marshall, councilman of the ward, to the News Review man, "and I am heartily in favor of it being done. I believe that council will act promptly when it can see its way clear financially."

Chevalier Fined $4.60.

O. S. Chevalier, who assaulted Expressman J. W. Powell yesterday morning at the East End station, pleaded guilty this morning in 'Squire Carman's court to assault and was fined $1 and costs, amounting to $4.60, which he paid. The suit brought by J. E. Davis, as attorney for Farmer, against W. B. Tompkins for $23.25, alleged to be due for cabbage sold the defendant several months ago, was set for hearing at 2 o'clock Thursday.

Building Seven New Houses.

As stated in the News Review yesterday the erection of seven new houses was commenced this morning. Quite a large force of men are at work staking off the lots and doing other preparatory work. It is expected to have all these new dwellings completed by the first day of the new year, and they will make quite an addition to this section of the East End.

EAST END AFFAIRS.

Miss Janet, the daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth McMillen, is very ill with throat trouble.

James Beardmore went to Beaver Falls this morning to work this week in a cooper shop.

C. E. Foutts, the East End barber, was called to Salineville this morning to attend the funeral of a relative.

Columbus Stewart, who has been employed for some time at the sewer pipe works as a brancher, is moving his family to the East End today from New Cumberland.

Mrs. D. F. White, of Railroad street, whose serious illness with typhoid fever was noted yesterday, is better today. She had a very restless night, but has gained in strength.

MARRIED IN MAY, 1901

Steubenville Wife Now Seeks Divorce, Charging Abuse of Herself And Daughter.

Steubenville, November 4.—Capitola Sanders, of this city, has brought suit to obtain a divorce from David H. Sanders on the ground of extreme cruelty.

They were married on May 11, 1901, and in her petition the plaintiff says that four months after their marriage her husband slapped her face, tore her clothes off her, pulled her hair and ears until the blood flowed from them, and that on June 15, 1902, he struck her on the head with a plate, breaking the plate and knocking her unconscious and cutting a severe wound in her head. She also alleges that on July 1, 1902, he drew a revolver upon her and threatened to kill her by shooting her in the head; that at various times he threatened to kill her and called her all manner of vile and oppobrious names in the hearing and presence of her children and strangers.

Mrs. Sanders also says that her husband would abuse her 14-year-old daughter Laura by slapping her in the face, pulling her hair and beating her with a strap. She alleges that she is the owner of a house and lot on Prospect avenue in the Sixth ward, and she asks in addition to a divorce that her husband be divested of all right of dower in the premises.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contains Mercury.

as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.

SALINEVILLE

Salineville, November 4.—Rev. Hugh Fisher, of Topeka, Kas., gave a thrilling lecture at the M. E. church of his life in Kansas during the border ruffianism which existed in the state in its early settlement. Mr. Fisher was well known in Carroll county, having married Miss Elizabeth Acheson, a prominent and well known school teacher 44 years ago, and settled in Kansas territory.

R. G. Thompson, an ex-soldier of this place, reached the seventy-fifth milestone in the journey of life last Friday. He and his good wife recently passed the fifty-fourth anniversary of their marriage.

Mayor John F. Kerr, after a prolonged visit with his parents in Washington, D. C., is again found in his office at city hall.

J. W. George, one of Carrollton's merchants, was in town looking after a business room to start a branch clothing store.

The public school lecture course will open on November 8 in the opera house. The first number will be the Boston Musical Dramatic company. Other dates will be announced later, in December, January, February and March.

W. A. Thompson and Judge Moore, of Lisbon, drove over to Salineville to the Kennedy Republican meeting.

He Learned a Great Truth.

It is said of John Wesley that he once said to Mistress Wesley: "Why do you tell that child the same thing over and over again?" "John Wesley, because once telling is not enough." It is for this same reason that you are told again and again that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cures cold and grip; that it counteracts any tendency of these diseases to result in pneumonia, and that it is pleasant and safe to take. ## HOME FOR INSANE MAN

Colored Lunatic Denied Admission to Asylum, May Go to Another Institution.

Lisbon, November 4.—(Special)—Judge Boone is making an effort to secure the admission of Reed Michaels, the insane young colored man, to the home for feeble minded youth at Columbus. Michaels was refused admission to Massillon asylum, and is now in the county infirmary.

Judge Boone has written in his behalf to Dr. A. D. Doran, the superintendent of the Columbus institution.

COUNTY AND NEIGHBORHOOD

Amsterdam now has 16 producing oil wells, new coal mines and other evidences of a boom.

Jesse Barker, a 10-year-old lad residing in Clark's lower addition, at Toronto, was thrown off a horse and painfully injured.

Miss Alice Thomas, of Sherodsville, formerly of Jefferson county, was so badly burned by a gasoline stove that she died.

The oil well on the Snyder farm, a half mile from New Alexandria, was drilled in and makes a showing for a hundred barrel producer.

At Steubenville, Ashley McFadden, who assaulted 13-year-old Catharine Ullrick, at Brilliant, and who was convicted by the jury, was sentenced to five years in the penitentiary.

Crazed by the excessive use of cigarets, John Stewart, a 12-year-old youth, attempted to drown himself by jumping into the Ohio river at Wheeling. His father drowned himself a few years ago.

John Wilson, who pleaded guilty to a charge of robbery, was sentenced at Steubenville to serve three years in the penitentiary. Wilson tried to steal James Robinson's pocketbook at the Tri-State fair.

Orin Fitzgerald, a wealthy farmer of Pymantuning township, Mercer county, Pa., started for Kinsman, O., on October 15 to buy cattle. He had several hundred dollars, and as he has failed to return foul play is feared.

An anti-cigaret club has been formed at New Cumberland by Rev. J. S. Hamilton, pastor of the Presbyterian church. All of the boys and young men will be asked to refrain from using cigarets. Those who refrain until Christmas will be tendered a banquet by the pastor. He expects to make the movement a gereral one in Hancock county.

No trouble to prepare quick breakfasts if you have Mrs. Austin's famous Pancake Flour. Ready in a moment.

ALLIED PRINTING TRADES UNION LABEL COUNCIL E. LIVERPOOL, O.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 1902.

The man who wants to stay away from the polls on election day can always find an excuse for doing so. But he can never find a good excuse. He can say it will make no difference to him who is elected. Even if that were the case, is it a part of a patriotic citizen to act wholly for self? But it is not true. The result of an election concerns all the people, and may greatly affect their fortunes for weal or woe. No elector can truthfully say that his influence does not count. At the polls all men are equal, and the ballot of the day laborer counts for precisely as much as that of the millionaire. The people rule in this nation, and if the right sort of men do not fill the office, the people are responsible. Suffrage is a privilege men would fight for, if they saw it was to be denied them. It is the proud boast of Americans that they have the best government on earth. It is one of the inalienable privileges of our people to grumble at the government, though we allow no one else to do so. If every citizen would exercise his right and privilege of voting, and instead of saying he cares not who fills the offices, see that the offices are filled by men of integrity and fearlessness, nine-tenths of all cause for complaint would be removed. Abraham Lincoln, one of the best and wisest Americans that ever lived, had full faith in the plain people. All our most successful statesman have had similar faith, and rarely have any of them had reason to think it was misplaced. The people rule, and rule through the ballot. Negligence of duty on their part is inexcusable.

"The News Review has the highest respect for Thomas J. Duffy as a man, but it has no respect whatever for his politics. He is mistaken when he asserts that this paper has been warring on him. But we have waged, and will continue to wage, unrelenting warfare on the political principles he represents."

Some of Mr. Duffy's friends appear to have taken offense at the above editorial in the News Review of Saturday, giving it a meaning it never was intended to convey. Our hostility to the principles Mr. Duffy represents affects him, not as a Labor representative, but as a representative of the Democratic party. We have constantly fought Democracy, and intend to keep up the battle. We have opposed Mr. Duffy's candidacy, believing that, if elected, he would be compelled to act and work with the Democrats, because in the past he has voted with that party, and because we believe labor's interests are safest in the hands of the Republican party.

Our neighbors in West Virginia will today elect five congressmen instead of four, as in previous years, and the chances are that all will be Republican. West Virginia is certainly a great and progressive state.

There will be no Democratic tidal wave, unless the Democrats want to call the wave that will engulf them theirs.

The farmers of Ohio were never more prosperous. They are not enthusiastic over Tom Johnson's proposition to put all taxes on land. Wait till the rural vote is counted and see.

There will still be time to vote after you have read this paragraph. If you have neglected to go on record in favor of profection and good times, hesitate no longer.

Pennsylvania politics are so complicated this year that whoever wins it will take a week or two to decide which party is entitled to claim victory.

The result is a foregone conclusion. Prosperity is a thing of which the people do not weary.

It will be a Republican congress. Even the Democrats do not expect the impossible.

This is the day when Ohio expects each of her sons to do his duty.

Ohio will vote to keep on letting well enough alone.

The red automobile will never look so pretty again.

Good Republican weather.

Voters, do your duty.

NEW JERSEY CONTEST.

Estimates Made by Men of Both Parties.

Trentton, N. J. Nov. 4.—The campaign in this state has been one of the most spirited in years. The Democratic leaders have predicted the election of five of the eight new senators to be chosen, but the Republicans now assert they will elect six senators and 45 of the 60 members of the house.

Democratic State Chairman Gourley expressed the belief that the Democrats would carry four congressional districts, the first, third, ninth and tenth. The normal Republican majority in the first district is claimed to be 5,000 and the third district gave Governor Murphy a plurality of 2,038. The ninth and tenth districts are embraced in Democratic Hudson county.

Both Confident In New Hampshire.

Concord, N. H., Nov. 4.—The last hours of the political battle found both sides confident. Republicans do not put their plurality for the state ticket at less than 10,000, while the Democrats claim there will be no choice by the people and the election will be thrown in the house of representatives.

Theater-goers who remained away from the Grand last night missed an unusually good performance "Are You a Mason?" was the attraction and was greeted by one of the smallest houses of the season, when, in point of merit, it deserved one of the largest. It is a screaming farce in three acts adapted from the German, and the company that presented it was excellent.

FREIGHT TRAINS ON THE CROSSING

Cause West End People to Ask That a New Street Be Opened.

BOND ISSUE IS VOTED FOR

Sum of $30,000 to Be Provided to Enable City to Pay Off Outstanding Debts — Contract Let for Water Street Improvement.

More than eight councilmen attended the regular meeting last evening, the first time for weeks. Nine were present, President Whitacre being the only absentee. Vice President Brennan presided.

A petition was read, signed by West End citizens, asking that council take some action toward having the railroad crossing at Twentieth street opened. The principal reason for the opening of this street is to give the school children who live across the track in the West End a chance to get to school in the morning. Eighteenth street is blocked with freight trains nearly all of the time and the opening of Twentieth street would facilitate matters to some extent. It was moved that City Solicitor Boyd be ordered to take the necessary steps toward opening the street and a unanimous vote was taken.

A petition was read, signed by people who own property abutting on Eve alley, better known as "Jag" alley, asking council to pave the thoroughfare. Favorable action was taken.

A petition signed by the Wellsville Chiny company asked for better fire protection. The company says the present force of the water supply is not sufficient to properly protect its plant in case of fire. It asks council to place a supply tank at the plant for this purpose. The matter was referred to the water works trustees.

Another petition was from the Wellsville China company. It asked council to extend the paving of Ninth street to pass the packing sheds, which would mean the addition of several feet of paving. The company claims that its wagons and drays have to back up to the packing sheds in thick mud and agreed to to pay for one-half of the additional paving. Resolutions were adopted to give the company permission to pave.

A petition signed by many West End citizens was read, asking for the paving of Steubenville street, those signing the petition agreeing to a special assessment of $1.50 per running foot and paying the street a width of 15 feet. Council voted to grant the petition.

Councilmen Weaver and Henderson talked for quite a while on the condition of the Henry Kampman property on Steubenville street. Mr. Weaver said that if council did not take some action towards filling in his lot Kampman would enter suit. No action was taken.

Resolutions were passed to issue bonds in the sum of $30,000 to pay certain outstanding indebtedness of the city. An ordinance to issue the bonds was adopted under a suspension of the rules. The bonds are to be $500 each, the first one to be payable in 1912.

Reports were read and confirmed of equalizing boards of the following streets: Fourth street, Spring Hill avenue, Commerce street, James street, Kelly avenue, Clark avenue, Liverpool street and Lisbon street from First to Fourth. Ordinances providing for the payment were in each instance passed by council.

Councilman Weaver reported that the electric light company has put in a pole at the corner of Tenth and Center streets without permission. The pole committee was empowered to remove it.

An ordinance providing for an addition to the city of a plat of lots belonging to the D. T. Lawson property was passed. A similar action was taken relative to the addition of a plat of lots belonging to the Harmon Michaels property at the foot of Tenth street.

Two bids were received and opened by the city clerk for the building of the retaining wall on Water street from Eighteenth street Twenty-first street. The bidders were John T. Myers and Rinehart Bros. The former's bid was $5.50 per cubic yard for masonry and 40 cents per cubic yard for excavating. The latter's bid was $6 per cubic yard for masonry and 50 cents per cubic yard for excavating. It is estimated by the city civil engineer that 800 cubic yards of excavating will be required to build the wall and 2,100 cubic yards of masonry.

City Engineer Leith reported that, according to the lowest bid received, $5,076 would be his approximate estimate on the cost of the wall. Council awarded the contract to Mr. Myers.

Mayor Fogo asked council to take some action relative to notifying the street railway company to recognize the badges of the Wellsville policemen on its street cars and not compel them to pay fare when in citizen's clothes. A motion to this effect was made by Councilman Brennan and was passed. A motion that the clerk notify Manager Healy to properly fix up the holes which the street railway company has left in the city streets and put better head lights on all cars was passed.

An ordinance was passed that where street improvements are going on the proper red lights should be placed as danger signals.

An ordinance was passed to protect the soldiers' monument hereafter to be erected in the city and also to protect the big cannons on the public square which were tampered with on Halloween night. The ordinance provides a fine not exceeling $100 and the costs of prosecution.

A written report for the month of October from Mayor Fogo showed that $139.15 had been received by him in fines, licenses and rents.

Council wound up proceedings by ordering that $2,587.24 be borrowed for th ecity, so that the regular monthly bills could be paid. The bills approved by the finance committee were then ordered paid.

HOT GAME EXPECTED

High School Teams of East Liverpool And Wellsville Arranging a Foot Ball Match.

Arrangements are being made by Manager Arnold, of the local high school foot ball team, and the manager of the East Liverpool high school team for a game to be played on the local grounds Saturday afternoon. The high school team here is practicing every night for the game and will probably strengthen its line in this game by getting outside players.

The high schools were defeated in their last game with East Liverpool high school team, the score being 6 to 0. They will endeavor to reverse the score in this game, which promises to be a hot one. A week from Saturday the high school team will play a game with the Beaver Athletic club team of Lisbon on the Lisbon grounds. This game will also be a fast one.

The Bets Are for Kennedy.

Comparatively little interest is being taken in the election here today, and it is expected that when the polls close it will be found that but a small portion of the voters of the city have turned out. Many bets have been made, odds being given on Kennedy. One Republican voter ventured to say last evening that Kennedy would get two to one more than the other two candidates together in this city. No arrangements have been made for a place where the returns from the district can be heard.

Potters' Union Meeting.

Local union No. 55, N. B. of O. P., held its regular meeting last evening in Potters' hall. Nothing but routine business was transacted. Local union No. 24, N. B. of O. P., will meet this evening in Potters' hall. It is understood that the potters will not hold their annual dance until Monday following Thanksgiving. It will then be held in the city hall.

Coal Cars Derailed.

A small freight wreck occurred at Hammondsville last evening on the main line of the C. & P. A couple of heavily loaded coal cars were derailed causing a blockade that was hard to clear. No one was injured. The wreck train from the shops was called and after several hours work succeeded in clearing away the debris. Trains No. 301 and 302 were each delayed.

Bruno Club's Dance.

The Bruno Athletic club, of this city, is arranging to hold its first annual dance next Tuesday evening in the city hall. Invitations are being sent out and it is expected that a large crowd will attend. Good music has been arranged for and the boys will give an elaborate affair. Special care for East Liverpool will be arranged for to accommodate the crowd from there. Dancing will be from 8 until 12 o'clock.

LIGHTS ARE ORDERED WHERE MUCH NEEDED

COMMITTEE OF COUNCIL LOOKS AFTER CITY ILLUMINATION.

Electric Lamps to Be Placed in Sections Where They Will Be Appreciated.

The light committee of council made a tour of the city yesterday and located a number of lights which had been ordered, and a few at points where the committee deemed it necessary to have a little more illumination.

The residents of the city, with but few exceptions, are quick to make demands upon the council for improvements in the matter of not only grade lines, fire and police protection, but lights at every street intersection. These little items all cost money, and when the various funds are exhausted none are quicker to protest than the very men who are most eager for the alterations demanded.

For this reason the light committee has been very cautious to the present, and no lights have been authorized other than those which, in the judgment of the committee, were absolutely necessary for the safety and well being of the city. As a result there are many who will be disappointed at the result of the committee's decision.

A light was placed on the hill near the Northside fire station. Another was located at the entrance to Gardendale, where the road leaves the main Calcutta road. A third was placed on Thompson avenue, just below the reservoir.

In the down town district several lights were needed, but they were at points where the smaller ones were thought to be sufficient, and these were the sort selected by the committee. There are a number of alleys in the lower part of town where lights should have been placed long ago. In a majority of cases these lights are at alley intersections, and they were located as follows: In the alley at the rear of the Patterson foundry, between Walnut and College streets; another small light was located at the rear of the M. P. church, while the third was ordered at the intersection of the alleys below the Woodbine laundry.

BATTLE OF BALLOTS.

Votes Being Cast Throughout Commonwealth of Pennsylvania Today.

CREASY CLAIMS IT BY 40,000

Chairman Quay Declares Pennypacker Will Win by a Majority In the Neighborhood of 165,000. Creasy Claims Legislature.

Philadelphia, Nov. 4.—Voting is proceeding throughout the state today.

Senator Quay prepared a statement giving his estimates of the vote by counties on governor at today's election. The statement was given to the press last night at Republican state headquarters here by Mr. W. F. Wright, the senator's private secretary. Mr. Wright said the figures are conservative and were obtained from representatives of county chairmen. In a number of instances, he said, the estimates of the county chairmen were reduced considerably by the senator.

The statement said in part:

"In 37 counties outside of Allegheny and Philadelphia the estimates received from the respective county chairmen show a net gain of 21,938 votes for Pennypacker over the total vote cast therein for Barnett for state treasurer in 1899.

"In the remaining 28 counties outside of Allegheny and Philadelphia the estimates show a net loss of 12,834 votes compared with the number received by Barnett, making a total net gain for Pennypacker, outside of the counties of Allegheny and Philadelphia, of 9,104 votes.

Compared to Barnett's Pluraiity.

"Barnett's majority in the state was 110,488, of which Philadelphia contributed 69,664 and Allegheny 16,493. The other 65 counties gave Barnett a majority of 24,331. Add to this the total net gain just mentioned, 9,104, as estimated for Judge Pennypacker, and our ticket will come to the counties of Philadelphia and Allegheny with a majority of 33,435. These are conservative estimates, and the total Republican majority outside of the counties named may largely exceed the figures given.

"Add to this estimate that of 25,000 majority reported from Allegheny and 105,000 in Philadelphia, and you will see that the total majority in the state for Judge Pennypacker is likely to be in the neighborhood of 165,000 votes.

"As to the congressmen, we will hold our own and are likely to gain several districts. But one district, that the Berks-Lehigh, is conceded to the Democracy.

"The legislature will have two-thirds Republican majority in both branches."

Among Senator Quay's estimates of counties were these:

For Pennypacker—Allegheny, 25,000; Armstrong, 1,250; Beaver, 2,000; Bedford, 300; Blair, 2,800; Bradford, 1,600; Butler, 1,200; Cambria, 500; Clearfield, 500; Fayette, 600; Huntingdon, 1,500; Indiana, 1,800; Mercer, 800; Philadelphia, 105,000; Warren, 1,000; Washington, 3,000; Westmoreland, 1,600.

For Pattison—Clarion, 1,000; Greene, 1,450.

Pennypacker's estimated plurality, 163,435. Barnett's plurality, 110,488. Estimated net gain for Pennypacker over Barnett, 52,947.

Pattison Spoke Last Night.

Philadelphia, Nov. 4.—The campaign having ended, there was little activity yesterday about Republican and Democratic headquarters. Those of the state leaders not residing in this city left here Sunday night and yesterday for their homes to vote. Former Judge Pennypacker, Republican candidate for governor, spent the day at his home in Montgomery county and will remain there until after the election. Robert E. Pattison, his Democratic opponent, was at his office here most of the day and last night addressed a mass meeting of longshoremen in this city.

Insurance Commissioner Durham, leader of the local Republican organization, predicts a convincing victory for the Republican ticket. He said:

"As a result of the reports I have received I predict a Republican majority in Philadelphia of 100,000. The total may be higher. I look for 75,000 majority for Judge Pennypacker outside of Philadelphia. The city will send a solid delegation to both branches of the legislature."

Those of the Democratic leaders still here claim there is no doubt of Pattison's ability to carry the state outside of Philadelphia. Chairman Donnelly, of the city committee, expressed the belief that Pattison's vote in this city will be more than 75,000, which, it is claimed, will insure his election if the Democratic expectations are realized outside of Philadelphia.

Claim Made by Creasy.

The Democratic state headquarters at Harrisburg were closed yesterday by State Chairman Creasy, who left for his home in Columbia county to look after his candidacy for state representative. Chairman Creasy said the Democrats will make large gains all over the state and claimed the Democratic representation in the next legislature will be increased.

United States Senator Penrose will come up for re-election by the legislature to be elected today. It is claimed the Republicans will elect more than the 129 senators and representatives necessary to a choice on joint ballot, and this insures Penrose's election.

Harrisburg, Nov. 4.—Democratic State Chairman William T. Creasy said last night that Pattison would have 40,000 plurality and that the next legislature would be anti-Penrose.

THE FIGHT IN MARYLAND.

Light Vote Expected—Claims of Chairmen.

Baltimore, Nov. 4.—The night before the battle found both parties expressing the strongest confidence in the result. Chairman Goldsborough of the Republican committee, issued a statement last evening predicting that the state will go Republican by from 10,000 to 12,000, and that Maryland will again send a solid Republican delegation to congress.

Chairman Vandiver, of the Democratic committee, in a final statement, professes confidence in the election of four Democratic congressmen, with good chances for a fifth. The vote promises to be light on account of apathy.

Figures InC onnecticut.

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 4.—The Republican state committee was last night confident of a general victory in today's election, though Chairman Gates believes the plurality for the state ticket will be reduced from the 14,000 of two years ago. Mr. Gates also predicted Republican success in all the congressional contests, the hardest fight being in the fourth district, where Congressman Hill is opposed by William D. Bishop, Jr.

Outlook In Kentucky.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 4.—On the the evening before the election the outlook in the congressional races in Kentucky had not changed nor had the interest in the election become greater. It is generally conceded that the Democrats will elect seven congressmen and the Republicans one, while the remaining three districts are in doubt.

Much Interest Taken in Proposition of Forming a Chapter Here.

Much interest is being aroused among prominent ladies of this city by the proposition to organize a chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolutio nhere. As it takes but 12 members to form a chapter, it is thought one can be formed here without difficulty. As stated in the News Review the other day, any woman is eligible for membership in the National society of the Daughters of the American Revolution who is of the age of eighteen years and is lineally descended from a patriot, man or woman, who aided in establishing American Independence; provided the applicant is acceptable to the society.

Family alone in regard to the services of an ancestor, unaccompanied by proof, will not be considered.

Every effort is made by the registrar general to verify the applications through the published records. If, however, the ancestor's service can not be proved in Washington, it will be necessary for the applicant to send a certified copy from the pension, state, county or town records. The certificate will be returned to the applicant as soon as the ancestor's service is verified.

Old commissions, certified copies or certified photographs of commissions can verify an ancestor's service; so can old letters or certified copies of old letters proving service. Extracts rare historical works that can not be found in the national library, should always be attested.

Any patriot whose record has been accepted by the Daughters of the American Revolution or by societies of the Sons will be verified at once.

Each applicant is urged to give name of the state, and if possible the county or town from which her ancestor entered the service.

Vermont's record is very meagre. The first two volumes of the "Governor and Council" give some account of Revolutionary service. Some of the "Town Histories" contain rosters. If the service can not be proved write to the "Adjutant General, Montpelier"

AGED FARMER HURT

Nelson McCann, Aged 78, Near Salem, Fell in the Barn and Broke His Hip.

Salem, November 4.—While working in his barn three miles southeast of this city on the Franklin road, Nelson McCann fell and sustained serious injuries. He was up in a haymow and tumbled out, landing on the barn floor. His right hip was broken.

Mr. McCann was discovered some time after the accident and removed to the house. Mr. McCann is one of the best known farmers in this part of the county. Although he is 78 years old, he has always been able to do his own farming. This accident will leave him a cripple, even if he recovers at all.

Mrs. Anderson, a prominent society woman of Jacksonville, Fla., daughter of Recorder of Deeds, West, who witnessed her signature to the following letter, praises Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—There are but few wives and mothers who have not at times endured agonies and such pain as only women know. I wish such women knew the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It is a remarkable medicine, different in action from any I ever knew and thoroughly reliable.

"I have seen cases where women doctored for years without permanent benefit, who were cured in less than three months after taking your Vegetable Compound, while others who were chronic and incurable came out cured, happy, and in perfect health after a thorough treatment with this medicine. I have never used it myself without gaining great benefit. A few doses restores my strength and appetite, and tones up the entire system. Your medicine has been tried and found true, hence I fully endorse it."—MRS. R. A. ANDERSON, 225 Washington St., Jacksonville, Fla.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I feel it my duty to write and tell you the good I have received from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"I have been a great sufferer with female trouble, trying different doctors and medicines with no benefit. Two years ago I went under an operation, and it left me in a very weak condition. I had stomach trouble, backache, headache, palpitation of the heart, and was very nervous; in fact, I ached all over. I find yours is the only medicine that reaches such troubles, and would cheerfully recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to all suffering women."

When women are troubled with irregular or painful menstruation, weakness, leucorrhœa, displacement or ulceration of the womb, that bearing-down feeling, inflammation of the ovaries, backache, flatulence, general debility, indigestion, and nervous prostration, they should remember there is one tried and true remedy. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once removes such troubles.

The experience and testimony of some of the most noted women of America go to prove, beyond a question, that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will correct all such trouble at once by removing the cause and restoring the organs to a healthy and normal condition. If in doubt, write Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass, as thousands do.

No other medicine in the world has received such widespread and unqualified endorsement. No other medicine has such a record of cures of female troubles. Refuse to buy any substitute.

Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

Both Claim Minnesota.

St. Paul, Nov. 4.—General apathy is what the Republicans of Minnesota have to fear most in today's election. The Democrats have conducted the best campaign in years. Republican Chairman Jamison and Democratic Chairman Buck each claims 25,000 plurality for his party.

Kansas Chairmen Profess Confidence.

Topeka, Kan., Nov. 4.—Kansas today will elect a full state ticket, including eight congressmen. The Republican and Democratic chairmen both profess confidence in complete success at the polls.

DOUBTFUL RUMORS

And Still Scores of East Liverpool People Accept Them as Facts.

The published statement of some stranger residing in a far-away place may be true enough, but it is generally accepted as a doubtful rumor. How can it be verified? The testimony which follows is convincing proof because it comes from a resident of East Liverpool.

Mrs. William James, who lives at 283 Third street, says: "I was troubled off and on for eight years with a weakness of back and kidneys, a dull, aching pain across my loins up under my shoulder blades and rheumatic pains in my right shoulder. The trouble affected my nervous system, causing a frequent fluttering of the heart and shortness of breath. I generally resorted to porous plasters, but the relief was only temporary. I got Doan's Kidney Pills at the W. & W. pharmacy, obtaining instant relief and finally a cure."

FLED FROM RUSSIA

POLITICAL REFUGEE ASKS AID IN COLUMBUS.

Columbus, November 4.—The Franklin county infirmary directors had a queer proposition before them yesterday. A woman wanted transportation for herself and her three little boys as far as Cleveland. She and her sons got a "lift along the road" as far as Delaware.

The woman gave her name as Marie Patoff. She said that she was a Russion peasant, but her elegant English proved that she was not a peasant. She spoke the English language almost faultlessly, with but a mere trace of accident, and it was discovered that she could speak German, French, Russian and a Greek dialect as well. She finally confessed that she was a political refugee from Russia, but would not disclose her identity. She let out enough information, however, to prove that she and her husband were political suspects, had been imprisoned in Russia and had made a marvelous escape from that country.

She was very much afraid that she would be returned to Russia. She asked especially about the extradition treaty between the two countries and, when she was convinced that a person could not be extradited from the United States to Russia on a political charge, she let out a bit of her history, producing documents to prove the truth of her story.

Madame Patoff showed all the marks of an accomplished and educated woman, but her hands indicated that she had been at hard labor. When her attention was called to the fact that a Russian peasant could hardly be expected to speak five languages fluently and correctly, she simply laughed and said that many Russians had found it advisable to keep quiet as to their antecedents. She admitted, however, that she and her husband had found it necessary to leave Russia.

The family, according to the woman's story, came to Canada, and there the husband and father disappeared. The wife believes that he was taken away by Russian agents. She came to Columbus with her three boys, aged respectively, 7, 9 and 11 years, and worked in a restaurant.

"I am not an anarchist, and I am not a Greek Catholic. I am a Protestant, and I hope for the freedom of the Russians and all the people of the world."

Physicians are calling attention to the fact that influenza or grip has come to stay. In the larger cities there has been a marked increase in diseases affecting the organs of respiration, which increase is attributed to the prevalence of influenza. Persons who are recovering from grip or influenza are in a weak condition and peculiarly liable to pulmonary disease.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures coughs, bronchitis, lung "trouble" and other diseases of the organs of respiration. It is the best tonic medicine for those whose strength and vitality have been exhausted by an attack of grip.

It purifies the blood, cleansing it of the poisonous accumulations which breed and feed disease. It gives increased activity to the blood-making glands, and so increases the supply of pure blood, rich with the red corpuscles of health.

"A word for your 'Golden Medical Discovery,'" writes Mrs. E. A. Bender, of Keene, Coshocton Co., Ohio. "We have been using it as a family medicine for more than four years. As a cough remedy and blood-purifier there is nothing better, and after having the grip Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is just the right medicine for a complete bracing up."

Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery." There is nothing "just as good" for diseases of the stomach, blood, and lungs.

The sluggish liver is made active by the use of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

LIVING CURIOSITY

Thought Garfield the Chief Executive, But Recollected Garfield Was Shot.

Columbus, Nov. 4.—A living curiosity in the shape of a man who does not know who is the president of the United States, or how old he is, is locked up at the city prison, and his name is Charles Maynard.

Maynard is either the most ignorant man in town or a shrewd crook, but the police and the acting police surgeon are inclined to the former belief. He has been incarcerated in the city prison since last Monday, when he was brought in by Special Officer Fugitt, of the steel plant, who charged him with assault and battery. The officer claimed that Maynard worked at the plant, and on Saturday night, after having been drinking heavily, while he was leading him out of the yard, Maynard drew a knife and threatened to cut him.

Maynard was tried in police court but sentence will not be passed until after a medical examination of the man has been made. In the court room Maynard expressed considerable ignorance as to the charge against him, and was nervous and trembling all the time. He had never been in jail or in the court room before in his life.

Acting Police Surgeon Hamblin made an examination of the man. He says he was born in West Virginia, but does not know the date. He is a typical southerner, came from the hills and could not tell who is the president of the United States. He finally suggested that Garfield is the chief executive of the nation, but after considerable study he believed that Garfield had been shot. He also said he heard of another president being shot some time ago, but couldn't remember just who it was. Dr. Hamblin expressed the opinion that the man is simply ignorant.

NO FUNERALS ON SUNDAY

New Regulations in the Catholic Church—Laws On Matrimony And Intemperance.

Steubenville, Nov. 4.—There will be no more Sunday funerals in Catholic churches in this city, unless for reasons very good; neither will there be flowers brought into the church at a funeral. These are two of the new rules adopted by the priests of the diocese at the recent synod for the laymen. Not only rules regulating funerals were adopted but everything of interest of laymen and for the betterment of the church and the people were touched upon, so that the Catholics of Columbus diocese are now living under an almost entire set of new rules.

The new laws relating to the laymen were read in Holy Name and St. Peter's churches Sunday, after which they became a law. The most important of these laws are those relating to matrimony, funerals and intemperance. In the first and third, many people indulge, but in the second every body takes a hand.

Hereafter there will be no dispensation from reading the bans, announcing a wedding ceremony, when the two parties are of the same religious belef, except by permission from the bishop and then there must be good reasons. Regarding intemperance the new laws are very strict. They do not prevent Catholics from engaging in the liquor business, but they do require them to live up to the rules of the state, by compelling them to refrain from giving away or selling liquor on Sundays or selling to minors or a man or woman when they are intoxicated, while it admonishes them to prevent women from entering their saloons. Another of the rules, important clauses is to discourage the treating habit, which is considered the foundation of intemperance.

TO DISCUSS NEW CODE

Arrangements in Progress for the Meeting of Ohio Municipal League.

Columbus, November 4.—(Special)—A meeting of the executive committee of the Ohio Municipal league will be held at Dayton November 15 to arrange for the meeting of the league at Hamilton some time in February. The sessions will last three days and will be devoted to a discussion of the new municipal code.

Governor Nash, Special Counsel Smith M. Bennett, of the attorney general's office, and Wade Ellis, of Cincinnati, and other authorities on municipal government, will be invited to open the discussion.

READYITO MEET THEM

West End Rovers Prepared to Play the Oakland Athletic Club for $100 a Side.

Manager Thomas Carpenter, of the West End Rovers foot ball team, stated last evening to a News Review reporter that his team will play the Oakland Athletic club for $100 a side and the gate receipts and denied the assertion that the latter team defeated his at any time last season.

The Rovers have been in constant practice for a month or more, and considering the fact that they played with the best all of last season it is quite likely that they will hold their own against the best that will appear on the local gridiron this fall.

REPUBLICANS CONFIDENT.

But the Democrats Are Hopeful of Winning In Massachusetts.

Boston, Nov. 4.—The last word from the stump in the Massachusetts political campaign was spoken last night by the leading orators of both parties.

Should the Indian summer weather which has prevailed for the past few days continue today it is believed that the total state vote will run well above 300,000. Republicans are exceedingly confident and the Democrats very hopeful. The former claim the state by 25,000, while the latter believe they will elect their candidate for governor by 8,000 plurality.

The present congressional delegation stands 10 Republicans and 2 Democrats, but this year Massachusetts gains a congressman on the redistricting. Under the new apportionment the Republicans assert that 12 of the party candidates will win, while the Democrats claim they will elect at least 9 out of the 14 congressmen.

The uncertain element in today's election is the strength of the Socialistic vote.

Mrs. W. C. Sanborn, Concord, N. H., says:

"I have used 'Blood Wine' with the best of results. I commenced to gain from the use of the first bottle, and am glad to recommend it to all sufferers."

SENT TO OPERATORS.

TO REPLY IN 3 OR 4 DAYS.

Hazleton, Pa., Nov. 4.—The anthracite strike commission spent the entire day yesterday in the Lehigh Valley region, visiting one mine and several of the mining villages. While most of the commissioners were looking over the territory, Recorder Wright was kept busy on the train in attending to the correspondence of the commission.

Among the matters he disposed of was the sending of a copy of President Mitchell's statement of the miners' case, which was filed with the commission on Sunday night before its departure from Scranton for this region, to all the coal companies involved in the present controversy. The statement was mailed from this city and should be in the hands of the companies today. Under the agreement made before the commission at Washington the operators will make a reply in three or four days.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Nov. 4.—President Mitchell's protest against the sliding scale, as filed with the investigating commission, meets with the approval of all miners. The opinion at strike headquarters is that the re adoption of the sliding scale would be a step backward, and instead of the miners gaining anything by their strike they would be the losers.

Dynamite was placed under the house occupied by a man named Samuel Dominick, at Pittston, yesterday morning and exploded. The front porch and one window were wrecked. The inmates of the house escaped in jury, but were badly scared.

Constipation Will Undermine Your Health.

Mull's Grape Tonic Cures Constipation.

When the sewer of a city becomes stopped up, the refuse backs into the streets where it decays and rots, spreading disease-creating germs throughout the entire city. An epidemic of sickness follows. It is the same way when the bowels fail to work. The undigested food backs into the system and there it rots and decays. From this festering mass the blood saps up all the disease germs, and at every heart beat carries them to every tissue, just as the water works of a city forces impure water into every house. The only way to cure a condition like this is to cure the constipation. Pills and the ordinary cathartics will do no good.

MULL'S GRAPE TONIC is a crushed fruit tonic-laxative which permanently cures the affliction. The tonic properties contained in the grape go into every afflicted tissue and creates strength and health. It will quickly restore lost flesh and make rich, red blood. As a laxative its action is immediate and positive, gentle and natural. Mull's Grape Tonic is guaranteed or money back.

"I was a perfectly healthy young man up to February 1865. When my regiment was in Camp Randall I was taken sick with the measles and I did not enjoy good health up to the time I used Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine and Tonic in 1896. Doctors have told me it came from inactivity of the liver. I cannot say how many physicians did treat me but have had all kinds. Dieting has never helped me. Biliousness, attacks of headache, rheumatism, nasal catarh, hay fever, asthma, and chronic diarrhœa; have all taken their turn with me. Thanks to the Nervine and Tonic I am completely restored to health. I have also used Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills with good results and I think that the Dr. Miles Remedies are perfect."—Rev. Hiram Bender, Sparta, Wis.

"I want to say a few good words for Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. I have been troubled very much with insomnia since I made the change to the new paper and on account of this have tried various remedies without relief. I was finally induced by a wholesale druggist, a personal friend of mine, to try Nervine. I can assure you it has done me a lot of good. I do not find it necessary to use it regularly now but occasionally when I find that I am excessively nervous and restless I again take it up as I always keep a supply on hand. It has never failed to give me the desired relief."—A. Huegin, Publisher "Daily Free-Press" Milwaukee, Wis.

Workman Bound by Burglars and Hotel Safe Blown Open.

Monaca, Pa., Nov. 4.—Early yesterday morning, while Patrick McClain, a well-known resident of Colonia, was on his way to work at the Colonial steel works, South Monaca, he stopped in front of the Colonia hotel window to look at the office clock. As he did so a man thrust a revolver in his face and told him to keep still. Two other men then approached and the three gagged him and tied him securely. He was then carried around to the side of the building, where one of the men kept guard over him while the other two blew up the safe. The thieves secured nothing, the funds having been removed the previous evening.

HORSE RACE TODAY IS ATTRACTING GREAT ATTENTION.

It Is Estimated That $20,000 In Bets Have Been Placed On the Result.

The great horse race at Columbian park is on this afternoon. Although a little misty, the weather is all that could be desired and the track is in excellent condition. Never before was there as much interest taken in a local race.

Over $5,000 was wagered on the horses last night, and today it is estimated that the amount ran to near $20,000. Hundreds of local sports and a large number from a distance thronged the park this afternoon. Among the visiting ones were men from New York and Pittsburg who have followed fine racing all their lives.

DANIEL M'CLOUD ARRESTED FOR STRIKING A WOMAN

Admits His Guilt, But Says Dr. Rose Hathway Tried to Run a Horse Over Him.

HIS STORY OF EXCITING FIGHT IN A FIELD

As the result of a hot dispute over the rights connected with a certain piece of property, Dr. Rosemond L. Hathway, of 298 Eighth street, and Daniel McCloud, a tenant on the Ross farm, situated about three miles from the city on the Lisbon road, engaged in a pitched battle last Saturday. That either is left to tell the tale is credited to good luck.

The exciting encounter occurred in an open field, each having ample room to work out all latent pugilistic abilities without the interference of trees, fences or crowds. According to the story of McCloud, each took every advantage of the surrounding conditions. At an early hour this morning Constable Powell visited the Ross farm and served two warrants on McCloud, one for assault and battery and the other for giving vent to profane and indecent language, both being sworn to in 'Squire Rose's court by Dr. Hathway yesterday afternoon.

McCloud was not at all surprised when approached by the constable. He was rather expecting the fracas to terminate in court, having well considered the temperament of his feminine foe. He very willingly stated that he had landed a blow or two on the woman, but he strongly avers that his action was not unprovoked and looks at it from a self-defense standpoint.

"Seeing Dr. Hathway down in a field preparing to plow up a tract which I thought she had no right to touch," said McCloud, "I went down and commenced to argue the point with her. She allowed me to discuss the subject for a few minutes, and all at once she flew into a terrible rage. A horse which she was riding she attempted to drive over me. I had to jump to get out of the animal's way. And when she continued trying to run me down, I thought I had better do something and do it quick if I did not want to be a dead one. I had a stick in my hand and used it on the horse's nose. At this the irate woman dropped to the ground and landed a terrific blow, straight from the shoulder, on my jaw. At me she plunged again, and in defense I struck her also."

It was impossible to get Dr. Hathway's side of the occurrence, but it is to be supposed that she, having had her antagonist arrested, will attempt to prove the opposite from what he stated. The case has been set for a hearing this evening.

On his return trip Constable Powell had a most exciting experience, one that he states he will remember to the end of his days. He was driving a fractious animal and it took fright at some unseen object and started on a terrible run down the road toward the city. Up and down the hill the horse plunged, many times nearly capsiziug the rig. For a full mile the horse continued at its awful gait and when the officer finally got it stopped it had become detached from the buggy and broken several pieces of the harness.

THE VOTE TODAY.

It Will Not Be Heavy in East Liverpool—Figures From the Wards.

The vote that is being polled in this city today, while not heavy, is likely to be considerably in excess of that cast at the spring election. The main interest locally centers in the contest for congressman to represent the Eighteenth district.

There are six tickets in the field in this district to be voted for. The Republican and Democratic tickets are, as usual, complete. The others have a few candidates on the Prohibition ticket and on down to one candidate on the Labor ticket. The remaining tickets are the Socialist and Socialist Labor.

At 2:50 p. m., the following number of votes had been cast at the various precincts:

First ward, first precinct, 157.
Second precinct, 117.
Second ward, first precinct, 121.
Second precinct, 191.
Third ward, first precinct, 147.
Second precinct, 153.
Fourth ward, first precinct, 146.

BRAVELY DEFIED A BURLY TRAMP

Insolent Beggar Tried to Force His Way Into a West End Home.

HOUSEWIFE KEPT HIM OUT

Standing in the doorway with no weapon of defense in her hands, Mrs. George Smith, of 458 Jethro street, bravely defied a burly tramp, and by her heroic efforts frustrated the plans of the vicious brute, at an early hour last Saturday evening.

Mrs. Smith's first glimpse of the man was upon her leaving the home on the way to Fisher's grocery store, across the street, where she was going to purchase her usual Saturday night's provisions. Stepping from the front door to the pavement leading to the street she was slightly alarmed at the fellow's effrontery in boldly brushing past her, without uttering a word and continuing on to the rear of the house.

She also perceived that the fellow stopped and gazed suspiciously through the windows, leading her to believe that his intentions were not the best, to say the least. For a moment she was at a loss what to do, but seeing two men of the neighborhood, George Croxall and another standing out in the street, she concluded to ask them to keep watch on the stranger while she went into the house. Although it required the nerve of a strong minded man to carry out her decision she, without a shiver, marched into the house and back to the rear door.

There, standing in full view, was the man. He said not a word, but made signs as if appealing for admittance. Mrs. Smith with vehemence told him that there was nothing in the house for him and ordered him to vacate. At the command he became maddened and grasping the screen door jerked it open and attempted to gain an entrance. Like a flash Mrs. Smith took hold of the door proper and slammed it with all her force in his face.

The two men standing watch knew from the sound that something was doing and lost no time in reaching the scene. Together they seized him, one by the coat collar and the other by the arm, and to say that he was hustled off the premises would be expressing it mildly. They not only escorted him with violence, but when they reached the sidewalk each gave him a kick that he will remember for years, and one that sent him many feet on his course, which was headed for Wellsville.

The residents of the West End were much worked up over the affair for an hour or more, and their only regret is that they did not turn the man over to the police instead of letting him depart without more than a pummeling. He was a big rough looking character and would send a chill over the most nervy.

16-YEAR OLD BOY PUT UNDER BOND

PLEA NOT GUILTY ENTERED

Enoch Smith Is Accused of Assaul And Battery And a More Seriou Crime—Released On Bail For a Hearing Next Thursday.

Facing the charge of assault and battery and a more serious crime Enoch Smith, aged 16, was arraigned before 'Squire McCarron this afternoon. The warrant causing his arrest was sworn against him by Edna Broadbent, a 15-year-old girl, living in California Hollow.

The particulars of the girl's terrifying experience was given exclusively in the News Review last Saturday. She was wending her way homeward from church on Sunday evening, October 26, when a boy whom she then did not recognize, but who told her that he was a brother of a girl named Smith, chased her for several blocks, and finally stopped her when near the home of her father. By biting, kicking and threatening to shout for assistance she prevented the youth from injuring her. Since the night of her assault she has studied much over the matter and yesterday decided to have Enoch arrested.

After the accused was arrested and taken to the office of the justice he asked that he might have the privilege of employing a lawyer, and when the request was granted he had considerable trouble in securing one. However, at 1:30 an attorney went to his rescue and advised him to plead not guilty to the charges. On doing this the 'squire released him under a bond of $200 for his appearance next Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

ELECTION OFFICERS REFUSING TO SERVE IN THE FOURTH WARD

Two Democratic Judges and a Clerk, and One Republican Judge Failed to Appear and Qualify.

When the polls opened at the first precinct of the Fourth ward about two hours after the time specified by law, no Democratic clerk or judges had yet appeared.

Judge James H. Tracy, who has served the Democrats for years at this precinct, had declared several weeks ago that he would not act on this occasion. As for the others, Joseph Reilly as judge and James Nagle, clerk, no explanation was offered. Both of these men have also served as Democratic officers in the past. Nagle is the boy who one year ago caused considerable trouble within the ranks of his party because it was said that he was not at that time 21 years of age.

If there is an irregularity or hitch in the manner of conducting elections in East Liverpool it is indeed a slow day when the first precinct of the Fourth ward has not something novel to offer, and this fall election, it seems, will be no exception to the rule.

W. A. Calhoun, who was appointed on the board at this precinct as a Republican judge, made his appearance at the proper time this morning, but made some inquiry as to the amount which the law prescribed should be paid for the holding of the election, and stated he would not do the work for $2 per day. He remained for a short time, and then departed, leaving only Frank Gallimore, Republican, clerk; Joseph Holtzman, Republican, judge, in charge of the precinct. Frank Fowler, a member of the Republican city central committee, was pressed into service, but even then the parties hesitated to open the election without the presence of any of the Democratic officers. It was fully 8:30 before a ballot was accepted and then only after Ed Cook, chairman of the Democratic city committee, and J. J. Weisend appeared on the scene and advised that the election be preceded with.

In the meantime B. D. Beacom, of Wellsville member of the board of county supervisors of election, was summoned, and at once went to work upon the case.

Section 2936 of the election laws says: "Any person elected judge of election of clerk, who refuses to qualify as such, or a judge of election or clerk who refuses to discharge the duties imposed by law, or a person chosen to act as judge of election who refuses to act, shall forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding $20, for the use of the county, to be received with costs, in the name of the county, by any justice of the peace of the proper township."

Section 2919 provides for $2 per day for conducting elections.

Attorney L. T. Farr, of Rogers, a member of the county board of deputy supervisors, was made acquainted with the matter this morning by the president of the board. He was asked this afternoon by telephone as to what action would be taken by the board. "I don't know what the other members think," he said, "but I consider it an inexcusable neglect of duty that should not be passed without some rebuke. Personally I am in favor of pun-

NO HOPE OF REFORMATION

The Executive Informs the Prisoner That He Proposes to Rid the City of Such Characters—Two Others More Lightly Sentenced.

"Why don't you be good?" said Mayor Davidson to Jim Penny this morning, when that well known character was arraigned before home on a charge of vagrancy and drunkenness.

"I have worn my patience out with you," continued the mayor. "You have been before me upon numerous occasions, and I have let you off through sympathy. You have promised me time and again to straighten up and make a man out of yourself, but you fail to carry out the promise every time. I have stood your actions as long as I can, and this time I am going to give you a sentence that I hope will result in your reforming."

"The sentence is that you pay a fine of $50 and costs and that you stand committed in the workhouse until both are paid. I think that will have some effect on you. Now, I want to warn you of one thing. If, when you are released from your six months' incarceration, you return to East Liverpool, I will send you back immediately. This city is tired of your kind, and I most assuredly am doing all within my power to keep it clear of such characters."

Penny did not have a chance to get in a word edgeways and took the medicine in an unconcerned way, only saying that he would give the chief executive another chance as soon as possible.

Two more were also before the mayor. Had it not been for the fact that they work occasionally they would surely have the pleasure of accompaning Penny on his trip tomorrow. They were "Lige" Cain and "Chip" Gamble. On Second street last night they were arrested by Officer Saulsberry but were allowed to go to their homes upon a promise to appear this morning. Cain looked as though he had been against John L. Sullivan, and at first showed a disposition to deny that he had been in a scrap. He was fined $6.60 and having an old fine of the same amount he was placed in the city jail where he will remain until the entire amount is paid. Gamble pleaded guilty and was fined $2 and costs. He made arrangements to settle.

IMPORTANT WITNESS DEAD

An Occurrence Which May Lead to Brewer's Acquittal on Murder Charge.

Columbus, November 4.—(Special.)—John Bender, a bartender, the most important witness in the murder case in which Colonel Albert Brewer, of Tiffin, formerly of Trenton, N. J., is charged with causing the death of Luther Hershey, a dairyman of Tiffin, died at the latter city. He was an eye-witness of the quarrel between the two men which, it is alleged, resulted in Hershey's death.

Colonel Brewer's friends incline to the belief that Bender's death will have the effect of bringing about his acquittal. Another factor in Brewer's favor is that the law under which he was indicted for second degree murder has been declared invalid and it will probable be necessary to return another indictment under the new law. The impression is becoming widespread that Brewer will either be acquitted or be given a mild sentence.

COLUMBIANA SALOONIST

Who Disappeared After Indictment Has Come Back And Given Bond.

Lisbon, November 4.—(Special)—Sheriff Leonard went to Columbiana early yesterday morning to serve papers on Howard Flickinger, who was indicted by the grand jury on two counts for selling and furnishing liquor to a minor.

Flickinger had disappeared just after the meeting of the grand jury and could not be notified sooner. He gave bond for his appearance.

Smallpox Abated.

The smallpox scare at Clarkson has abated, but citizens claim there is still great need of vigilance to prevent another outbreak. The destruction of every polluted article is strongly demanded.

THE FIGHT AT COLUMBUS

Columbus, November 4.—(Special.)—The state house is well nigh deserted today, most of the officials and employes having gone home to vote. Governor Nash and Secretary of State Laylin will receive returns this evening over a special wire which has been put in the secretary's office. A fierce fight is being waged in the Columbus district for congress. Cyrus Huling is the Republican candidate and Judge Badger the Democratic candidate. Badger has been a resident of Columbus for many years and has a large personal following, but is not as shrewd a politician as his opponent.

The Democrats are moving heaven and earth, as it were, to elect their man, and from all indications the contest will be the closest in the state. Huling is a good man, but has some enemies on account of having been in politics a long time. Emmett Tomkins, the present congressman, is a Republican and defeated John J. Lentz, Democrat, two years by less than 25 votes. He did not ask for another term.

Licensed to Marry.

Lisbon, November 4.—(Special.)—Samuel H. Bennett and Alma Pearl Brown, both of Winona, and Ed Mays, Allegheny, and Grace Forney, Leetonia, have been granted marriage licenses.

It was decided to make this change at a meeting of the directors held at Cleveland October 21. C. W. Woolford, secretary of the company, has his office at Baltimore, Md.

GOLDEN WEDDING A JOYOUS TIME

Happy Reunion of Children and Friends at the Home of Rev. J. N. Swan and Wife.

ALL BUT ONE ARE PRESENT

The golden anniversary of the wedding of Rev. and Mrs. James N. Swan was celebrated today at their home on Ohio avenue, East End. The invited guests, immediately relatives of Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Swan, numbering about 20, arrived last evening and today. During the morning hours there was a general rejoicing over a family once more reunited, the only occasion for regret being the absence of Dr. John M. Swan, who is a medical missionary in Canton, China.

The Swan home was tastefully decorated with chrysanthemums and potted plans, and presented a scene of joy and gladness. The family dinner was one of the happiest features of the occasion. The menu comprised nearly everything good to eat and it afforded Mr. and Mrs. Swan great pleasure to again preside at the table with their loved ones present. The venerable couple were the recipients of many valuable presents, all of which were gold, in keeping with the custom in a celebration of this nature.

From 3 until 5 o'clock this afternoon Rev. and Mrs. Swan were at home to their many friends and during these hours the house was thronged with those who had been members of his congregations and others who had come in contact with their charming personalities. There were congratulations from all, it being a striking demonstration of the high esteem and respect that they command.

WITH THE WORKMEN IN THE CLAY PLANTS

WORKING OVERTIME.

The new shapes and designs in dinner and toilet sets that Burford's are preparing for the spring trade are now out of the hands of the mould-makers and into the clay shops. It is expected to have them ready for the trade by the first of the new year. The decorations for this ware are entirely new and are said to be unusually handsome and tasteful. Manager George E. Buxton, of the decorating room, has been working his force every night and expects to keep it up until Christmas. He has just started to fill an order for a car load of holiday novelties for Oregon dealers. There are 67 members of the decorating department now, by far the largest number in the history of the plant.

MACKEY-MARTINDALE.

Frank Mackey, of this city, and Miss Elizabeth Martindale of Chester, were married last Saturday afternoon at New Cumberland, W. Va. They returned Monday to this city and are at the home of the groom's father, A. J. Mackey, on Florence street, where a reception was tendered them last evening. The groom is a popular young decorator in the Taylor, Smith & Taylor potteries at Chester, and both have a large circle of friends. They will go to housekeeping soon in Chester.

LEADS IN WEDDINGS.

Burford's seems to lead in the matter of recent weddings. In the past six weeks there have been three in which the plant was represented by either a bride or groom. These recent marriages were David Evans to Miss Bertha House, Harry Caton to Miss Lula House and Archie Charlton to Miss Ella Wycoff.

WANTS POLE MOVED.

Joseph Jackson, of the glost kiln crew at Burford's, has complained to the council about a pole recently placed near his house on Sheridan avenue by the street car company. He claims the pole is occupying the space set aside for the sidewalk and wants the council to compel the car company to place it properly.

QUITS THE POTTERIES.

Albert Nubon, a kiln placer at Burford's, is working out his notice and will leave the potteries permanently to accept a situation with the Crockery City Brewing company. His departure will be regretted by his benchmates, and he takes with him the good will of them all.

WATER PIPE BURST.

The bursting of a water pipe yesterday morring in the slip room at Burford's caused a lay-off of all the clay departments until it could be repaired, which was done forthwith. Other than the loss of time there was no damage.

Miss Mattie Hall, a finisher at Cartwright's, has returned to work after an illness.

HUSBAND WITH ANOTHER

Steubenville, November 4.—A dramatic incident which occurred in one of Steubenville's leading confectionery stores last evening will not soon be forgotten by the score or more spectators who witnessed it.

The brilliantly lighted ice cream parlors at the rear end of the confectionery store were almost filled with customers when two well dressed couples entered and took seats at the table in the center of the room. They were in such a jovial mood that they attracted the attention of most everyone. One of the men evidently wished to impress upon the public at large that he was the "prince of good fellows," as he insisted on ordering the ices and cake for the party just as they were about to be served a white faced woman, scarcely out of her teens, entered the store. In her arms she carried a very little baby. Glancing nervously around for an instant, her eyes fell on the party under the electric chandelier.

Walking quickly out to the center table she laid her hand on the shoulder of the "prince of good fellows" and as he looked up at her she said "Good evening, Mr. M——." Then she turned and addressed the others in the room and in a calm, clear voice said: "This is my husband, but he doesn't provide me with the necessities of life. Every stitch of clothing I have on now from the skin out is borrowed, but just look at his jewelry. Isn't it fine? He runs about with young girls, but this is his baby. Look at it, can't you tell that it's his child, and yet the poor little darling hasn't a bed to lie in up at her home on the avenue."

Had a pin fallen in the room while she was talking it would have startled everybody so great was the quietness that fell upon the spectators. The "good fellow," his face a bright crimson, uttered never a word. When his wife finished speaking the young lady at his side jumped to her feet. "I didn't know he was married," she said to the little wife. Then turning to him she added "You're a pretty specimen, you ought to be ashamed of yourself. Why don't you go home with your wife and baby?" The "good fellow" sheepishly picked up his hat and slunk out of the door followed by his wife and child. Just then the ices and cake were set down on the table, but his companions had lost their appetites and they too departed, leaving the refreshments untouched.

AWAKENED BY SMOKE

Mother And Four Children At Steubenville Had a Very Narrow Escape.

Steubenville, Nov. 4.—To be awakened by smoke pouring into the bed room, and with four children by her side, all of whom became terror stricken when the house was discovered on fire at an early hour was the predicament in which Mrs. Otto Schultz was placed shortly before 4 o'clock yesterday morning.

Unlike the children, Mrs. Schultz did not lose self control, and as a consequence she hurried to the second floor of the house to awaken her husband and three children and hurry them from the room, that was close to the flames. In doing so she probably saved them from suffocation, as they were all sound asleep and after being aroused, had hardly left the room until it was filled with smoke. The house, located on Fourth street, was damaged about $1,400.

IN THE FIFTH WARD

The election today, so far as the Fifth ward is concerned, promises to be one of the quietest, and with the least interest manifested of any in recent years. Those who voted this morning seemed to be prompted rather by a spirit of duty than by any interest in the result. At 9 o'clock this morning 38 votes had been cast, which is considered only a fair showing. The judges and clerks in charge estimate that about 300 votes will be cast, an increase of about 50 over the vote of last spring. This is only about one-fourth of the estimated increase in the voting population of the ward.

The Republican workers are claiming that they will make the best showing for the ticket of any ward in proportion the number of votes cast.

The following are the judges and the clerks in the Fifth ward today: J. S. Fisher, Republican, presiding judge; M. W. Elliott and N. J. Orr, Democrats, judges; F. K. Ferran, Republican, judge; J. E. Davis, Republican, and Harry Laughlin, Democrat, clerks.

LIGHT IS WANTED

If persistency on the part of some of the most prominent residents of the city, and particularly of the East End, will have any effect on the city council it is a foregone conclusion that Pennsylvania avenue will be dotted with electric lights before many weeks. The pressing need of this improvement is admitted by all. This avenue is the principal connecting link between the city and the East End for equestrians and teamsters, but under the present conditions it cannot be safely utilized after the shades of night have fallen. When a belated team is caught on the road, if the night is dark, the driver is compelled to get out and lead his horses, unless he wants to run the risk of going over an embankment. It is a serious handicap to the merchants and others who do business in the two sections.

"Nobody realizes the necessity of lighting this thoroughfare more than I," said Dr. R. J. Marshall, councilman of the ward, to the News Review man, "and I am heartily in favor of it being done. I believe that council will act promptly when it can see its way clear financially."

Chevalier Fined $4.60.

O. S. Chevalier, who assaulted Expressman J. W. Powell yesterday morning at the East End station, pleaded guilty this morning in 'Squire Carman's court to assault and was fined $1 and costs, amounting to $4.60, which he paid. The suit brought by J. E. Davis, as attorney for Farmer, against W. B. Tompkins for $23.25, alleged to be due for cabbage sold the defendant several months ago, was set for hearing at 2 o'clock Thursday.

Building Seven New Houses.

As stated in the News Review yesterday the erection of seven new houses was commenced this morning. Quite a large force of men are at work staking off the lots and doing other preparatory work. It is expected to have all these new dwellings completed by the first day of the new year, and they will make quite an addition to this section of the East End.

EAST END AFFAIRS.

Miss Janet, the daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth McMillen, is very ill with throat trouble.

James Beardmore went to Beaver Falls this morning to work this week in a cooper shop.

C. E. Foutts, the East End barber, was called to Salineville this morning to attend the funeral of a relative.

Columbus Stewart, who has been employed for some time at the sewer pipe works as a brancher, is moving is family to the East End today from New Cumberland.

Mrs. D. F. White, of Railroad street, whose serious illness with typhoid fever was noted yesterday, is better today. She had a very restless night, but has gained in strength.

MARRIED IN MAY, 1901

Steubenville Wife Now Seeks Divorce, Charging Abuse of Herself And Daughter.

Steubenville, November 4.—Capitola Sanders, of this city, has brought suit to obtain a divorce from David H. Sanders on the ground of extreme cruelty.

They were married on May 11, 1901, and in her petition the plaintiff says that four months after their marriage her husband slapped her face, tore her clothes off her, pulled her hair and ears until the blood flowed from them, and that on June 15, 1902, he struck her on the head with a plate, breaking the plate and knocking her unconscious and cutting a severe wound in her head. She also alleges that on July 1, 1902, he drew a revolver upon her and threatened to kill her by shooting her in the head; that at various times he threatened to kill her and called her all manner of vile and oppobrious names in the hearing and presence of her children and strangers.

Mrs. Sanders also says that her husband would abuse her 14-year-old daughter Laura by slapping her in the face, pulling her hair and beating her with a strap. She alleges that she is the owner of a house and lot on Prospect avenue in the Sixth ward, and she asks in addition to a divorce that her husband be divested of all right of dower in the premises.

SALINEVILLE

Salineville, November 4.—Rev. Hugh Fisher, of Topeka, Kas., gave a thrilling lecture at the M. E. church of his life in Kansas during the border ruffianism which existed in the state in its early settlement. Mr. Fisher was well known in Carroll county, having married Miss Elizabeth Acheson, a prominent and well known school teacher 44 years ago, and settled in Kansas territory.

R. G. Thompson, an ex-soldier of this place, reached the seventy-fifth milestone in the journey of life last Friday. He and his good wife recently passed the fifty-fourth anniversary of their marriage.

Mayor John F. Kerr, after a prolonged visit with his parents in Washington, D. C., is again found in his office at city hall.

J. W. George, one of Carrollton's merchants, was in town looking after a business room to start a branch clothing store.

The public school lecture course will open on November 8 in the opera house. The first number will be the Boston Musical Dramatic company. Other dates will be announced later, in December, January, February and March.

W. A. Thompson and Judge Moore, of Lisbon, drove over to Salineville to the Kennedy Republican meeting.

He Learned a Great Truth.

It is said of John Wesley that he once said to Mistress Wesley: "Why do you tell that child the same thing over and over again?" "John Wesley, because once telling is not enough." An anti-cigaret club has been formed at New Cumberland by Rev. J. S. Hamilton, pastor of the Presbyterian church. All of the boys and young men will be asked to refrain from using cigarets. Those who refrain until Christmas will be tendered a banquet by the pastor. He expects to make the movement a gereral one in Hancock county.

ALLIED PRINTING TRADES UNION LABEL COUNCIL EAST LIVERPOOL

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 1902.

The man who wants to stay away from the polls on election day can always find an excuse for doing so. But he can never find a good excuse. He can say it will make no difference to him who is elected. Even if that were the case, is it a part of a patriotic citizen to act wholly for self? But it is not true. The result of an election concerns all the people, and may greatly affect their fortunes for weal or woe. No elector can truthfully say that his influence does not count. At the polls all men are equal, and the ballot of the day laborer counts for precisely as much as that of the millionaire. The people rule in this nation, and if the right sort of men do not fill the office, the people are responsible. Suffrage is a privilege men would fight for, if they saw it was to be denied them. It is the proud boast of Americans that they have the best government on earth. It is one of the inalienable privileges of our people to grumble at the government, though we allow no one else to do so. If every citizen would exercise his right and privilege of voting, and instead of saying he cares not who fills the offices, see that the offices are filled by men of integrity and fearlessness, nine-tenths of all cause for complaint would be removed. Abraham Lincoln, one of the best and wisest Americans that ever lived, had full faith in the plain people. All our most successful statesman have had similar faith, and rarely have any of them had reason to think it was misplaced. The people rule, and rule through the ballot. Negligence of duty on their part is inexcusable.

"The News Review has the highest respect for Thomas J. Duffy as a man, but it has no respect whatever for his politics. He is mistaken when he asserts that this paper has been warring on him. But we have waged, and will continue to wage, unrelenting warfare on the political principles he represents."

Some of Mr. Duffy's friends appear to have taken offense at the above editorial in the News Review of Saturday, giving it a meaning it never was intended to convey. Our hostility to the principles Mr. Duffy represents affects him, not as a Labor representative, but as a representative of the Democratic party. We have constantly fought Democracy, and intend to keep up the battle. We have opposed Mr. Duffy's candidacy, believing that, if elected, he would be compelled to act and work with the Democrats, because in the past he has voted with that party, and because we believe labor's interests are safest in the hands of the Republican party.

Our neighbors in West Virginia will today elect five congressmen instead of four, as in previous years, and the chances are that all will be Republican. West Virginia is certainly a great and progressive state.

There will be no Democratic tidal wave, unless the Democrats want to call the wave that will engulf them theirs.

The farmers of Ohio were never more prosperous. They are not enthusiastic over Tom Johnson's proposition to put all taxes on land. Wait till the rural vote is counted and see.

There will still be time to vote after you have read this paragraph. If you have neglected to go on record in favor of protection and good times, hesitate no longer.

Pennsylvania politics are so complicated this year that whoever wins it will take a week or two to decide which party is entitled to claim victory.

The result is a foregone conclusion. Prosperity is a thing of which the people do not weary.

It will be a Republican congress. Even the Democrats do not expect the impossible.

Ohio will vote to keep on letting well enough alone.

The red automobile will never look so pretty again.

Good Republican weather.

Voters, do your duty.

NEW JERSEY CONTEST.

Estimates Made by Men of Both Parties.

Trentton, N. J. Nov. 4.—The campaign in this state has been one of the most spirited in years. The Democratic leaders have predicted the election of five of the eight new senators to be chosen, but the Republicans now assert they will elect six senators and 45 of the 60 members of the house.

Democratic State Chairman Gourley expressed the belief that the Democrats would carry four congressional districts, the first, third, ninth and tenth. The normal Republican majority in the first district is claimed to be 5,000 and the third district gave Governor Murphy a plurality of 2,038. The ninth and tenth districts are embraced in Democratic Hudson county.

Both Confident In New Hampshire.

Concord, N. H., Nov. 4.—The last hours of the political battle found both sides confident. Republicans do not put their plurality for the state ticket at less than 10,000, while the Democrats claim there will be no choice by the people and the election will be thrown in the house of representatives.

AT THE THEATER

Theater-goers who remained away from the Grand last night missed an unusually good performance "Are You a Mason?" was the attraction and was greeted by one of the smallest houses of the season, when, in point of merit, it deserved one of the largest. It is a screaming farce in three acts adapted from the German, and the company that presented it was excellent.

"The Gates of Justice" is by the well known artist, Ernest Albert, of the Lee Lash studios, New York. The cast includes Miss Lillian Kingsbury, and Clint G. Ford, two well known favorites. At the Grand, November 6.

WELLSVILLE

FREIGHT TRAINS ON THE CROSSING

Cause West End People to Ask That a New Street Be Opened.

BOND ISSUE IS VOTED FOR

Sum of $30,000 to Be Provided to Enable City to Pay Off Outstanding Debts — Contract Let for Water Street Improvement.

More than eight councilmen attended the regular meeting last evening, the first time for weeks. Nine were present, President Whitacre being the only absentee. Vice President Brennan presided.

A petition was read, signed by West End citizens, asking that council take some action toward having the railroad crossing at Twentieth street opened. The principal reason for the opening of this street is to give the school children who live across the track in the West End a chance to get to school in the morning. Eighteenth street is blocked with freight trains nearly all of the time and the opening of Twentieth street would facilitate matters to some extent. It was moved that City Solicitor Boyd be ordered to take the necessary steps toward opening the street and a unanimous vote was taken.

A petition was read, signed by people who own property abutting on Eve alley, better known as "Jag" alley, asking council to pave the thoroughfare. Favorable action was taken.

A petition signed by the Wellsville Chiny company asked for better fire protection. The company says the present force of the water supply is not sufficient to properly protect its plant in case of fire. It asks council to place a supply tank at the plant for this purpose. The matter was referred to the water works trustees.

Another petition was from the Wellsville China company. It asked council to extend the paving of Ninth street to pass the packing sheds, which would mean the addition of several feet of paving. The company claims that its wagons and drays have to back up to the packing sheds in thick mud and agreed to to pay for one-half of the additional paving. Resolutions were adopted to give the company permission to pave.

A petition signed by many West End citizens was read, asking for the paving of Steubenville street, those signing the petition agreeing to a special assessment of $1.50 per running foot and paying the street a width of 15 feet. Council voted to grant the petition.

Councilmen Weaver and Henderson talked for quite a while on the condition of the Henry Kampman property on Steubenville street. Mr. Weaver said that if council did not take some action towards filling in his lot Kampman would enter suit. No action was taken.

Resolutions were passed to issue bonds in the sum of $30,000 to pay certain outstanding indebtedness of the city. An ordinance to issue the bonds was adopted under a suspension of the rules. The bonds are to be $500 each, the first one to be payable in 1912.

Reports were read and confirmed of equalizing boards of the following streets: Fourth street, Spring Hill avenue, Commerce street, James street, Kelly avenue, Clark avenue, Liverpool street and Lisbon street from First to Fourth. Ordinances providing for the payment were in each instance passed by council.

Councilman Weaver reported that the electric light company has put in a pole at the corner of Tenth and Center streets without permission. The pole committee was empowered to remove it.

An ordinance providing for an addition to the city of a plat of lots belonging to the D. T. Lawson property was passed. A similar action was taken relative to the addition of a plat of lots belonging to the Harmon Michaels property at the foot of Tenth street.

Two bids were received and opened by the city clerk for the building of the retaining wall on Water street from Eighteenth street Twenty-first street. The bidders were John T. Myers and Rinehart Bros. The former's bid was $5.50 per cubic yard for masonry and 40 cents per cubic yard for excavating. The latter's bid was $6 per cubic yard for masonry and 50 cents per cubic yard for excavating. It is estimated by the city civil engineer that 800 cubic yards of excavating will be required to build the wall and 2,100 cubic yards of masonry.

City Engineer Leith reported that, according to the lowest bid received, $5,076 would be his approximate estimate on the cost of the wall. Council awarded the contract to Mr. Myers.

Mayor Fogo asked council to take some action relative to notifying the street railway company to recognize the badges of the Wellsville policemen on its street cars and not compel them to pay fare when in citizen's clothes. A motion to this effect was made by Councilman Brennan and was passed. A motion that the clerk notify Manager Healy to properly fix up the holes which the street railway company has left in the city streets and put better head lights on all cars was passed.

An ordinance was passed that where street improvements are going on the proper red lights should be placed as danger signals.

An ordinance was passed to protect the soldiers' monument hereafter to be erected in the city and also to protect the big cannons on the public square which were tampered with on Halloween night. The ordinance provides a fine not exceeding $100 and the costs of prosecution.

A written report for the month of October from Mayor Fogo showed that $139.15 had been received by him in fines, licenses and rents.

Council wound up proceedings by ordering that $2,587.24 be borrowed for th ecity, so that the regular monthly bills could be paid. The bills approved by the finance committee were then ordered paid.

HOT GAME EXPECTED

High School Teams of East Liverpool And Wellsville Arranging a Foot Ball Match.

Arrangements are being made by Manager Arnold, of the local high school foot ball team, and the manager of the East Liverpool high school team for a game to be played on the local grounds Saturday afternoon. The high school team here is practicing every night for the game and will probably strengthen its line in this game by getting outside players.

The high schools were defeated in their last game with East Liverpool high school team, the score being 6 to 0. They will endeavor to reverse the score in this game, which promises to be a hot one. A week from Saturday the high school team will play a game with the Beaver Athletic club team of Lisbon on the Lisbon grounds. This game will also be a fast one.

The Bets Are for Kennedy.

Comparatively little interest is being taken in the election here today, and it is expected that when the polls close it will be found that but a small portion of the voters of the city have turned out. Many bets have been made, odds being given on Kennedy. One Republican voter ventured to say last evening that Kennedy would get two to one more than the other two candidates together in this city. No arrangements have been made for a place where the returns from the district can be heard.

Potters' Union Meeting.

Local union No. 55, N. B. of O. P. held its regular meeting last evening in Potters' hall. Nothing but routine business was transacted. Local union No. 24, N. B. of O. P., will meet this evening in Potters' hall. It is understood that the potters will not hold their annual dance until Monday following Thanksgiving. It will then be held in the city hall.

Coal Cars Derailed.

A small freight wreck occurred at Hammondsville last evening on the main line of the C. & P. A couple of heavily loaded coal cars were derailed causing a blockade that was hard to clear. No one was injured. The wreck train from the shops was called and after several hours work succeeded in clearing away the debris. Trains No. 301 and 302 were each delayed.

Bruno Club's Dance.

The Bruno Athletic club, of this city, is arranging to hold its first annual dance next Tuesday evening in the city hall. Invitations are being sent out and it is expected that a large crowd will attend. Good music has been arranged for and the boys will give an elaborate affair. Special care for East Liverpool will be arranged for to accommodate the crowd from there. Dancing will be from 8 until 12 o'clock.

COMMITTEE OF COUNCIL LOOKS AFTER CITY ILLUMINATION.

Electric Lamps to Be Placed in Sections Where They Will Be Appreciated.

The light committee of council made a tour of the city yesterday and located a number of lights which had been ordered, and a few at points where the committee deemed it necessary to have a little more illumination.

The residents of the city, with but few exceptions, are quick to make demands upon the council for improvements in the matter of not only grade lines, fire and police protection, but lights at every street intersection. These little items all cost money, and when the various funds are exhausted none are quicker to protest than the very men who are most eager for the alterations demanded.

For this reason the light committee has been very cautious to the present, and no lights have been authorized other than those which, in the judgment of the committee, were absolutely necessary for the safety and well being of the city. As a result there are many who will be disappointed at the result of the committee's decision.

A light was placed on the hill near the Northside fire station. Another was located at the entrance to Gardendale, where the road leaves the main Calcutta road. A third was placed on Thompson avenue, just below the reservoir.

In the down town district several lights were needed, but they were at points where the smaller ones were thought to be sufficient, and these were the sort selected by the committee. There are a number of alleys in the lower part of town where lights should have been placed long ago. In a majority of cases these lights are at alley intersections, and they were located as follows: In the alley at the rear of the Patterson foundry, between Walnut and College streets; another small light was located at the rear of the M. P. church, while the third was ordered at the intersection of the alleys below the Woodbine laundry.

BATTLE OF BALLOTS.

Votes Being Cast Throughout Commonwealth of Pennsylvania Today.

CREASY CLAIMS IT BY 40,000

Chairman Quay Declares Pennypacker Will Win by a Majority In the Neighborhood of 165,000. Creasy Claims Legislature.

Philadelphia, Nov. 4.—Voting is proceeding throughout the state today.

Senator Quay prepared a statement giving his estimates of the vote by counties on governor at today's election. The statement was given to the press last night at Republican state headquarters here by Mr. W. F. Wright, the senator's private secretary. Mr. Wright said the figures are conservative and were obtained from representatives of county chairmen. In a number of instances, he said, the estimates of the county chairmen were reduced considerably by the senator.

The statement said in part:

"In 37 counties outside of Allegheny and Philadelphia the estimates received from the respective county chairmen show a net gain of 21,938 votes for Pennypacker over the total vote cast therein for Barnett for state treasurer in 1899.

"In the remaining 28 counties outside of Allegheny and Philadelphia the estimates show a net loss of 12,834 votes compared with the number received by Barnett, making a total net gain for Pennypacker, outside of the counties of Allegheny and Philadelphia, of 9,104 votes.

Compared to Barnett's Plurality.

"Barnett's majority in the state was 110,488, of which Philadelphia contributed 69,664 and Allegheny 16,493. The other 65 counties gave Barnett a majority of 24,331. Add to this the total net gain just mentioned, 9,104, as estimated for Judge Pennypacker, and our ticket will come to the counties of Philadelphia and Allegheny with a majority of 33,435. These are conservative estimates, and the total Republican majority outside of the counties named may largely exceed the figures given.

"Add to this estimate that of 25,000 majority reported from Allegheny and 105,000 in Philadelphia, and you will see that the total majority in the state for Judge Pennypacker is likely to be in the neighborhood of 165,000 votes.

"As to the congressmen, we will hold our own and are likely to gain several districts. But one district, that the Berks-Lehigh, is conceded to the Democracy.

"The legislature will have two-thirds Republican majority in both branches."

Among Senator Quay's estimates of counties were these:

For Pennypacker—Allegheny, 25,000; Armstrong, 1,250; Beaver, 2,000; Bedford, 300; Blair, 2,800; Bradford, 1,600; Butler, 1,200; Cambria, 500; Clearfield, 500; Fayette, 600; Huntingdon, 1,500; Indiana, 1,800; Mercer, 800; Philadelphia, 105,000; Warren, 1,000; Washington, 3,000; Westmoreland, 1,600.

For Pattison—Clarion, 1,000; Greene, 1,450.

Pennypacker's estimated plurality, 163,435. Barnett's plurality, 110,488. Estimated net gain for Pennypacker over Barnett, 52,947.

Pattison Spoke Last Night.

Philadelphia, Nov. 4.—The campaign having ended, there was little activity yesterday about Republican and Democratic headquarters. Those of the state leaders not residing in this city left here Sunday night and yesterday for their homes to vote. Former Judge Pennypacker, Republican candidate for governor, spent the day at his home in Montgomery county and will remain there until after the election. Robert E. Pattison, his Democratic opponent, was at his office here most of the day and last night addressed a mass meeting of longshoremen in this city.

Insurance Commissioner Durham, leader of the local Republican organization, predicts a convincing victory for the Republican ticket. He said: "As a result of the reports I have received I predict a Republican majority in Philadelphia of 100,000. The total may be higher. I look for 75,000 majority for Judge Pennypacker outside of Philadelphia. The city will send a solid delegation to both branches of the legislature."

Those of the Democratic leaders still here claim there is no doubt of Pattison's ability to carry the state outside of Philadelphia. Chairman Donnelly, of the city committee, expressed the belief that Pattison's vote in this city will be more than 75,000, which, it is claimed, will insure his election if the Democratic expectations are realized outside of Philadelphia.

Claim Made by Creasy.

The Democratic state headquarters at Harrisburg were closed yesterday by State Chairman Creasy, who left for his home in Columbia county to look after his candidacy for state representative. Chairman Creasy said the Democrats will make large gains all over the state and claimed the Democratic representation in the next legislature will be increased.

United States Senator Penrose will come up for reelection by the legislature to be elected today. It is claimed the Republicans will elect more than the 129 senators and representatives necessary to a choice on joint ballot, and this insures Penrose's election.

Harrisburg, Nov. 4.—Democratic State Chairman William T. Creasy said last night that Pattison would have 40,000 plurality and that the next legislature would be anti-Penrose.

THE FIGHT IN MARYLAND.

Light Vote Expected—Claims of Chairmen.

Baltimore, Nov. 4.—The night before the battle found both parties expressing the strongest confidence in the result. Chairman Goldsborough of the Republican committee, issued a statement last evening predicting that the state will go Republican by from 10,000 to 12,000, and that Maryland will again send a solid Republican delegation to congress.

Chairman Vandiver, of the Democratic committee, in a final statement, professes confidence in the election of four Democratic congressmen, with good chances for a fifth. The vote promises to be light on account of apathy.

Figures InC onnecticut.

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 4.—The Republican state committee was last night confident of a general victory in today's election, though Chairman Gates believes the plurality for the state ticket will be reduced from the 14,000 of two years ago. Mr. Gates also predicted Republican success in all the congressional contests, the hardest fight being in the fourth district, where Congressman Hill is opposed by William D. Bishop, Jr.

Outlook In Kentucky.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 4.—On the the evening before the election the outlook in the congressional races in Kentucky had not changed nor had the interest in the election become greater. It is generally conceded that the Democrats will elect seven congressmen and the Republicans one, while the remaining three districts are in doubt.

Much Interest Taken in Proposition of Forming a Chapter Here.

Much interest is being aroused among prominent ladies of this city by the proposition to organize a chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution here. As it takes but 12 members to form a chapter, it is thought one can be formed here without difficulty. As stated in the News Review the other day, any woman is eligible for membership in the National society of the Daughters of the American Revolution who is of the age of eighteen years and is lineally descended from a patriot, man or woman, who aided in establishing American Independence; provided the applicant is acceptable to the society.

Family alone in regard to the services of an ancestor, unaccompanied by proof, will not be considered.

Every effort is made by the registrar general to verify the applications through the published records. If, however, the ancestor's service can not be proved in Washington, it will be necessary for the applicant to send a certified copy from the pension, state, county or town records. The certificate will be returned to the applicant as soon as the ancestor's service is verified.

Old commissions, certified copies or certified photographs of commissions can verify an ancestor's service; so can old letters or certified copies of old letters proving service. Extracts rare historical works that can not be found in the national library, should always be attested.

Any patriot whose record has been accepted by the Daughters of the American Revolution or by societies of the Sons will be verified at once.

Each applicant is urged to give name of the state, and if possible the county or town from which her ancestor entered the service.

Vermont's record is very meagre. The first two volumes of the "Governor and Council" give some account of Revolutionary service. Some of the "Town Histories" contain rosters. If the service can not be proved write to the "Adjutant General, Montpelier"

AGED FARMER HURT

Nelson McCann, Aged 78, Near Salem, Fell in the Barn and Broke His Hip.

Salem, November 4.—While working in his barn three miles southeast of this city on the Franklin road, Nelson McCann fell and sustained serious injuries. He was up in a haymow and tumbled out, landing on the barn floor. His right hip was broken.

Mr. McCann was discovered some time after the accident and removed to the house. Mr. McCann is one of the best known farmers in this part of the county. Although he is 78 years old, he has always been able to do his own farming. This accident will leave him a cripple, even if he recovers at all.

Mrs. Anderson, a prominent society woman of Jacksonville, Fla., daughter of Recorder of Deeds, West, who witnessed her signature to the following letter, praises Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—There are but few wives and mothers who have not at times endured agonies and such pain as only women know. I wish such women knew the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It is a remarkable medicine, different in action from any I ever knew and thoroughly reliable.

"I have seen cases where women doctored for years without permanent benefit, who were cured in less than three months after taking your Vegetable Compound, while others who were chronic and incurable came out cured, happy, and in perfect health after a thorough treatment with this medicine. I have never used it myself without gaining great benefit. A few doses restores my strength and appetite, and tones up the entire system. Your medicine has been tried and found true, hence I fully endorse it."—MRS. R. A. ANDERSON, 225 Washington St., Jacksonville, Fla.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I feel it my duty to write and tell you the good I have received from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"I have been a great sufferer with female trouble, trying different doctors and medicines with no benefit. Two years ago I went under an operation, and it left me in a very weak condition. I had stomach trouble, backache, headache, palpitation of the heart, and was very nervous; in fact, I ached all over. I find yours is the only medicine that reaches such troubles, and would cheerfully recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to all suffering women."

When women are troubled with irregular or painful menstruation, weakness, leucorrhœa, displacement or ulceration of the womb, that bearing-down feeling, inflammation of the ovaries, backache, flatulence, general debility, indigestion, and nervous prostration, they should remember there is one tried and true remedy. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once removes such troubles.

The experience and testimony of some of the most noted women of America go to prove, beyond a question, that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will correct all such trouble at once by removing the cause and restoring the organs to a healthy and normal condition. If in doubt, write Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass, as thousands do.

No other medicine in the world has received such widespread and unqualified endorsement. No other medicine has such a record of cures of female troubles. Refuse to buy any substitute.

Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

Both Claim Minnesota.

St. Paul, Nov. 4.—General apathy is what the Republicans of Minnesota have to fear most in today's election. The Democrats have conducted the best campaign in years. Republican Chairman Jamison and Democratic Chairman Buck each claims 25,000 plurality for his party.

Kansas Chairmen Profess Confidence.

Topeka, Kan., Nov. 4.—Kansas today will elect a full state ticket, including eight congressmen. The Republican and Democratic chairmen both profess confidence in complete success at the polls.

DOUBTFUL RUMORS

And Still Scores of East Liverpool People Accept Them as Facts.

The published statement of some stranger residing in a far-away place may be true enough, but it is generally accepted as a doubtful rumor. How can it be verified? The testimony which follows is convincing proof because it comes from a resident of East Liverpool.

Mrs. William James, who lives at 283 Third street, says: "I was troubled off and on for eight years with a weakness of back and kidneys, a dull, aching pain across my loins up under my shoulder blades and rheumatic pains in my right shoulder. The trouble affected my nervous system, causing a frequent flattering of the heart and shortness of breath. I generally resorted to porous plasters, but the relief was only temporary. I got Doan's Kidney Pills at the W. & W. pharmacy, obtaining instant relief and finally a cure."

FLED FROM RUSSIA

Speaks Five Languages Fluently—Not an Anarchist—Her Husband Disappears.

Columbus, November 4.—The Franklin county infirmary directors had a queer proposition before them yesterday. A woman wanted transportation for herself and her three little boys as far as Cleveland. She and her sons got a "lift along the road" as far as Delaware.

The woman gave her name as Marie Patoff. She said that she was a Russion peasant, but her elegant English proved that she was not a peasant. She spoke the English language almost faultlessly, with but a mere trace of accident, and it was discovered that she could speak German, French, Russian and a Greek dialect as well. She finally confessed that she was a political refugee from Russia, but would not disclose her identity. She let out enough information, however, to prove that she and her husband were political suspects, had been imprisoned in Russia and had made a marvelous escape from that country.

She was very much afraid that she would be returned to Russia. She asked especially about the extradition treaty between the two countries and, when she was convinced that a person could not be extradited from the United States to Russia on a political charge, she let out a bit of her history, producing documents to prove the truth of her story.

Madame Patoff showed all the marks of an accomplished and educated woman, but her hands indicated that she had been at hard labor. When her attention was called to the fact that a Russian peasant could hardly be expected to speak five languages fluently and correctly, she simply laughed and said that many Russians had found it advisable to keep quiet as to their antecedents. She admitted, however, that she and her husband had found it necessary to leave Russia.

The family, according to the woman's story, came to Canada, and there the husband and father disappeared. The wife believes that he was taken away by Russian agents. She came to Columbus with her three boys, aged respectively, 7, 9 and 11 years, and worked in a restaurant.

"I am not an anarchist, and I am not a Greek Catholic. I am a Protestant, and I hope for the freedom of the Russians and all the people of the world."

Physicians are calling attention to the fact that influenza or grip has come to stay. In the larger cities there has been a marked increase in diseases affecting the organs of respiration, which increase is attributed to the prevalence of influenza. Persons who are recovering from grip or influenza are in a weak condition and peculiarly liable to pulmonary disease.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures coughs, bronchitis, lung "trouble" and other diseases of the organs of respiration. It is the best tonic medicine for those whose strength and vitality have been exhausted by an attack of grip.

It purifies the blood, cleansing it of the poisonous accumulations which breed and feed disease. It gives increased activity to the blood-making glands, and so increases the supply of pure blood, rich with the red corpuscles of health.

"A word for your 'Golden Medical Discovery,'" writes Mrs. E. A. Bender, of Keene, Coshocton Co., Ohio. "We have been using it as a family medicine for more than four years. As a cough remedy and blood-purifier there is nothing better, and after having the grip Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is just the right medicine for a complete bracing up."

Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery." There is nothing "just as good" for diseases of the stomach, blood, and lungs.

The sluggish liver is made active by the use of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

Thought Garfield the Chief Executive. But Recollected Garfield Was Shot.

Columbus, Nov. 4.—A living curiosity in the shape of a man who does not know who is the president of the United States, or how old he is, is locked up at the city prison, and his name is Charles Maynard.

Maynard is either the most ignorant man in town or a shrewd crook, but the police and the acting police surgeon are inclined to the former belief. He has been incarcerated in the city prison since last Monday, when he was brought in by Special Officer Fugitt, of the steel plant, who charged him with assault and battery. The officer claimed that Maynard worked at the plant, and on Saturday night, after having been drinking heavily, while he was leading him out of the yard, Maynard drew a knife and threatened to cut him.

Maynard was tried in police court but sentence will not be passed until after a medical examination of the man has been made. In the court room Maynard expressed considerable ignorance as to the charge against him, and was nervous and trembling all the time. He had never been in jail or in the court room before in his life.

Acting Police Surgeon Hamblin made an examination of the man. He says he was born in West Virginia, but does not know the date. He is a typical southerner, came from the hills and could not tell who is the president of the United States. He finally suggested that Garfield is the chief executive of the nation, but after considerable study he believed that Garfield had been shot. He also said he heard of another president being shot some time ago, but couldn't remember just who it was. Dr. Hamblin expressed the opinion that the man is simply ignorant.

New Regulations in the Catholic Church—Laws On Matrimony And Intemperance.

Steubenville, Nov. 4.—There will be no more Sunday funerals in Catholic churches in this city, unless for reasons very good; neither will there be flowers brought into the church at a funeral. These are two of the new rules adopted by the priests of the diocese at the recent synod for the laymen. Not only rules regulating funerals were adopted but everything of interest of laymen and for the betterment of the church and the people were touched upon, so that the Catholics of Columbus diocese are now living under an almost entire set of new rules.

The new laws relating to the laymen were read in Holy Name and St. Peter's churches Sunday, after which they became a law. The most important of these laws are those relating to matrimony, funerals and intemperance. In the first and third, many people indulge, but in the second every body takes a hand.

Hereafter there will be no dispensation from reading the bans, announcing a wedding ceremony, when the two parties are of the same religious belef, except by permission from the bishop and then there must be good reasons. Regarding intemperance, the new laws are very strict. They do not prevent Catholics from engaging in the liquor business, but they do require them to live up to the rules of the state, by compelling them to refrain from giving away or selling liquor on Sundays or selling to minors or a man or woman when they are intoxicated, while it admonishes them to prevent women from entering their saloons. Another of the rules, important clauses is to discourage the treating habit, which is considered the foundation of intemperance.

Mrs. W. C. Sanborn, Concord, N. H., says:

"I have used 'Blood Wine' with the best of results. I commenced to gain from the use of the first bottle, and am glad to recommend it to all sufferers."

Arrangements in Progress for the Meeting of Ohio Municipal League.

Columbus, November 4.—(Special)—A meeting of the executive committee of the Ohio Municipal league will be held at Dayton November 15 to arrange for the meeting of the league at Hamilton some time in February. The sessions will last three days and will be devoted to a discussion of the new municipal code.

West End Rovers Prepared to Play the Oakland Athletic Club for $100 a Side.

Manager Thomas Carpenter, of the West End Rovers foot ball team, stated last evening to a News Review reporter that his team will play the Oakland Athletic club for $100 a side and the gate receipts and denied the assertion that the latter team defeated his at any time last season.

The Rovers have been in constant practice for a month or more, and considering the fact that they played with the best all of last season it is quite likely that they will hold their own against the best that will appear on the local gridiron this fall.

REPUBLICANS CONFIDENT.

But the Democrats Are Hopeful of Winning In Massachusetts.

Boston, Nov. 4.—The last word from the stump in the Massachusetts political campaign was spoken last night by the leading orators of both parties.

Should the Indian summer weather which has prevailed for the past few days continue today it is believed that the total state vote will run well above 300,000. Republicans are exceedingly confident and the Democrats very hopeful. The former claim the state by 25,000, while the latter believe they will elect their candidate for governor by 8,000 plurality.

The present congressional delegation stands 10 Republicans and 2 Democrats, but this year Massachusetts gains a congressman on the redistricting. Under the new apportionment the Republicans assert that 12 of the party candidates will win, while the Democrats claim they will elect at least 9 out of the 14 congressmen.

The uncertain element in today's election is the strength of the Socialistic vote.

SENT TO OPERATORS.

TO REPLY IN 3 OR 4 DAYS.

This Agreed Before Commission In Washington — Mitchell's Protest Against Sliding Scale Approved by Miners—Arbitrators Visit Mine.

Hazleton, Pa., Nov. 4.—The anthracite strike commission spent the entire day yesterday in the Lehigh Valley region, visiting one mine and several of the mining villages. While most of the commissioners were looking over the territory, Recorder Wright was kept busy on the train in attending to the correspondence of the commission.

Among the matters he disposed of was the sending of a copy of President Mitchell's statement of the miners' case, which was filed with the commission on Sunday night before its departure from Scranton for this region, to all the coal companies involved in the present controversy. The statement was mailed from this city and should be in the hands of the companies today. Under the agreement made before the commission at Washington the operators will make a reply in three or four days.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Nov. 4.—President Mitchell's protest against the sliding scale, as filed with the investigating commission, meets with the approval of all miners. The opinion at strike headquarters is that the re-adoption of the sliding scale would be a step backward, and instead of the miners gaining anything by their strike they would be the losers.

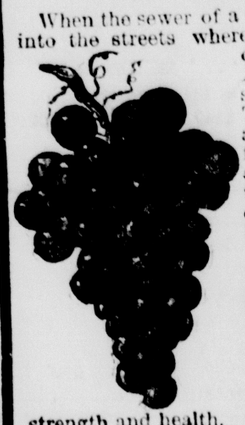

Dynamite was placed under the house occupied by a man named Samuel Dominick, at Pittston, yesterday morning and exploded. The front porch and one window were wrecked. The inmates of the house escaped injury, but were badly scared.

Constipation Will Undermine Your Health.

Mull's Grape Tonic Cures Constipation.

When the sewer of a city becomes stopped up, the refuse backs into the streets where it decays and rots, spreading disease-creating germs throughout the entire city. An epidemic of sickness follows. It is the same way when the bowels fail to work. The undigested food backs into the system and there it rots and decays. From this festering mass the blood saps up all the disease germs, and at every heart beat carries them to every tissue, just as the water works of a city forces impure water into every house. The only way to cure a condition like this is to cure the constipation. Pills and the ordinary cathartics will do no good.

MULL'S GRAPE TONIC is a crushed fruit tonic-laxative which permanently cures the affliction. The tonic properties contained in the grape go into every afflicted tissue and creates strength and health. It will quickly restore lost flesh and make rich, red blood. As a laxative its action is immediate and positive, gentle and natural. Mull's Grape Tonic is guaranteed or money back.

"I was a perfectly healthy young man up to February 1865. When my regiment was in Camp Randall I was taken sick with the measles and I did not enjoy good health up to the time I used Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine and Tonic in 1896. Doctors have told me it came from inactivity of the liver. I cannot say how many physicians did treat me but have had all kinds. Dieting has never helped me. Biliousness, attacks of headache, rheumatism, nasal catarh, hay fever, asthma, and chronic diarrhoea; have all taken their turn with me. Thanks to the Nervine and Tonic I am completely restored to health. I have also used Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills with good results and I think that the Dr. Miles Remedies are perfect."—Rev. Hiram Bender, Sparta, Wis.

"I want to say a few good words for Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. I have been troubled very much with insomnia since I made the change to the new paper and on account of this have tried various remedies without relief. I was finally induced by a wholesale druggist, a personal friend of mine, to try Nervine. I can assure you it has done me a lot of good. I do not find it necessary to use it regularly now but occasionally when I find that I am excessively nervous and restless I again take it up as I always keep a supply on hand. It has never failed to give me the desired relief."—A. Huegin, Publisher "Daily Free-Press" Milwaukee, Wis.

Address an Enthusiastic Meeting of Republican Voters at Lisbon.

Lisbon, November 4.—(Special.)—The Republicans held an enthusiastic meeting in the common pleas court room last evening. There was a good attendance and excellent addresses were made by State Senator W. G. Harding, of Marion, and Congressman R. W. Tayler. The Mahoning county committee had dated him for a speech in his home county.

The local committee appreciated the situation. Congressman Tayler made an eloquent and powerful address.

Workman Bound by Burglars and Hotel Safe Blown Open.

Monaca, Pa., Nov. 4.—Early yesterday morning, while Patrick McClain, a well-known resident of Colonia, was on his way to work at the Colonial steel works, South Monaca, he stopped in front of the Colonia hotel window to look at the office clock. As he did so a man thrust a revolver in his face and told him to keep still. Two other men then approached and the three gagged him and tied him securely. He was then carried around to the side of the building, where one of the men kept guard over him while the other two blew up the safe. The thieves secured nothing, the funds having been removed the previous evening.

HEAVY WAGERS HAVE BEEN PLACED

HORSE RACE TODAY IS ATTRACTING GREAT ATTENTION.

It Is Estimated That $20,000 In Bets Have Been Placed On the Result.

The great horse race at Columbian park is on this afternoon. Although a little misty, the weather is all that could be desired and the track is in excellent condition. Both horses, Tewksbury and Redmond are in perfect trim for the event and it is predicted that they will make an unprecedented record on the track. Never before was there as much interest taken in a local race.

Over $5,000 was wagered on the horses last night, and today it is estimated that the amount ran to near $20,000. Hundreds of local sports and a large number from a distance thronged the park this afternoon. Among the visiting ones were men from New York and Pittsburg who have followed fine racing all their lives.

Always in the Lead.

The Union Pacific was the first line to introduce Dining cars, Vestibulted cars, steam heat, Pintsch light, Buffet smoking and Library cars, Tourist cars on Trans-Continental trains west of the Missouri river, and contiues to lead. Is first in equipment; first in speed; first in important improvements; first in stupendous engineering enterprises; first in historic interest; first in scenic attractions.

It again leads by introducing an electric lighted train throughout "The Overland Limited," with Observation cars, barber shops, bath rooms and telephone service.

This famous train makes the run from Omaha to Salt Lake City 12 hours quicker, from San Francisco 16 hours quicker, and from Portland 16 hours quicker than any other train.
